

tinues until each of the counties has made its final report. He had the hearty assistance of Mr. Alex Kanter and Dr. I. W. Marcus. Dr. Marcus was also in charge of Yiddish propaganda and the Speakers' Bureau, which was ready to respond to every opportunity to bring the spoken message of War Relief at gatherings large and small.

Dr. Maurice Lefkovits, in addition to valuable work along many lines in the office, did some remarkably fine organizing work on the Iron Range. As a result of a week spent there, with the assistance of visiting speakers and local chairman, more than $20,000.00, with a prospect of a final $25,000.00 has been raised on the Range. In many other ways his assistance to the chairman was indispensable.

was in charge of the publicity, securing press notices that were so generous and effective.

Isaac Kaufmann, as aide to I. H. Ruben in connection with the solicitation among non-Jews, did effective work during the days of the campaign that he was in the city.

Kabbi Matt, whose absence from the city prevented his being one of the original ten volunteers, rendered service in many capacities in the office and on several out-of-town speaking trips on behalf of the War Relief.

Worthy of special mention also is Mr. Morris Kaufman, who, finding himself at leisure just at the time of the campaign, put in several weeks most faithfully in the office.

In addition to this campaign committee of twelve, the main work of collecting was done by the following captains: Israel Berman, Louis Berry, Harry G. Bloom, Arthur Brin, Dr. N. N. Cohen, Harry M. Dryer, Louis M. Frudenberg, John Z. Gelman, Sol Gottlieb, A. M. Gross, Albert H. Heller, Jr., Chas. Juster, Max J. Kaplan, Max A. Kohen, Israel Kreiner, Maurice J. Kronick, Charles Leavitt, M. D. Mirviss, David Phillips, Mose J. Rosenstein, Max Shallet, Louis S. Sohn, George Stromberg, Charles Weil, Abe Wolpert.

Assisted by almost 150 solicitors on the Business Men's Division in the downtown district, they did the main work of rolling up the total of $152,725.00, with more subscriptions rolling in.

Women's Division

A large number of women's committees did their share of the work untriflingly. Mrs. M. J. Weinstein and Mrs. Alexander Berman, generals on the North Side, and Mrs. Arthur Brin and Mrs. James Kantrowitz, generals on the West and South Sides, were able by their efforts to raise $10,000, a sum which, while comparatively not large, meant much more effort than many a larger sum.

IN THE STATE

In the state, the following counties through their chairmen, did and are doing the work among the Jews and the non-Jews which will account for about $25,000.00.

The Iron Range

On the Iron Range, the following did very effective work: Virginia, Julius Shanedding, Chairman; Hibbing, Charles Hallock, Chairman; Chisholm, Sam Lewis, Chairman; Eveleth, G. H. Perlman; Buhl, Medalie Brothers; Biwabik, M. Glasner. Their efforts resulted in bringing in almost $25,000.00, raised in a non-sectarian campaign, which was marked by warm appeals in different churches by the pastors.

In conclusion, the Chairman, Joseph H. Schanfeld, wishes to congratulate St. Paul on the fine way in which it out-did itself. St. Paul can, relatively, do better than Minneapolis, there is no cause in which the chairman would rather see this done than the relief of war sufferers. To all of the state and city subscribers, the chairman desires to say: The need is great; money is needed at once; the sooner money is sent, the greater the measure of help for the sufferers overseas.

The spirit of co-operation throughout has been inspiring. From the initial donation of the free use of the headquarters at 900 Hennepin avenue, which the Walter L. Badger agency so kindly put at the disposal of the committee, to the offer of I. H. Robitshek and Charles Sipkins, Secretary and Assistant-Secretary, to remain on the job until the work is ended November 1st, there was one constant round of helpfulness.

The Totals

The totals to date are approximately as follows: Minneapolis, $152,725; St. Paul, $132,500; the Iron Range, $22,500; Duluth (which had a pre-mature campaign of its own) $20,000; the rest of the state (expected total) $25,000.

RED WING'S CO.'S DONATION

The Red Wing Milling Company offered Mr. Jacob Chases, Chairman for Red Wing, twenty-five barrels of flour as its donation to the War Relief. As soon as the offer was communicated to headquarters, a wire was despatched to New York asking whether the donation was acceptable. On receiving an affirmative reply, the company in Red Wing was notified; its New York representative was authorized to place at the disposal of the Joint Distribution Committee twenty-five barrels of flour which have already been placed upon the steamer "Danzig," which leaves for Poland the latter part of this week.
