

SOUTHAM

(Continued from Page 4)

Mrs. Art Henley visited Mrs. Jack Stewart Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolf returned home from Devils Lake Monday.
Joe Henley of Nixon township was a caller in town Monday.
Paul Jaqua returned home Monday.
Fred Fingerson, who has been visiting at his home in Grand Forks the past week, returned here Monday.
Miss Anna Gintner substituted as teacher Monday forenoon, on account of Mr. Jaqua's absence.
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilhelm and family are all ill with the flu at their home here.
Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Stepp entertained Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schols and family at supper Wednesday evening.
Mike Brady of Nixon township went to Devils Lake on business Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Rubbleke were visitors and shoppers in Devils Lake one day last week.
Mr. Haggen, superintendent of the Woodworth elevator, was a business caller in town Tuesday.
Fred Bosworth went to Devils Lake Wednesday to remain there a few days.
Herman Wobbe was a business caller in Devils Lake Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilhelm and family are quite ill with the flu this week.
Dr. Allen of Cray was a professional caller in town Wednesday.
Charles Granger is quite ill at the home of his brother, Harry Granger.
Albert Cranston was a business caller in Devils Lake over Monday.
Ivan Fulkerson of Whitman was a visitor in town Tuesday, en route to Devils Lake.
Mrs. Felix Poissant of Nixon township was a visitor and shopper in town Thursday.
Miss Anna Gintner visited Miss Gladys Wobbe Thursday afternoon.
Joe Rutten went to Devils Lake Friday.
Miss Mary Gintner was a visitor and shopper in Devils Lake over Friday. She returned home Saturday.
Roy Mair was a passenger to Devils Lake Friday.
Mr. Bruce was a business caller in Devils Lake Thursday.
Miss Edith Sarles returned to Penn Saturday, where she will resume her duty as teacher in one of the rural schools.
Herman Klick was transacting business in Devils Lake one day last week.
Mrs. Norman Gosmal of Devils Lake came down Friday to spend a few days at the home of her father, Julius Nelson. —Cor. E.

WEBSTER

Continued on Page 8

Mrs. James Nash visited friends in Starkweather Thursday and Friday.
Mrs. Patrick Connors and daughter, Mrs. John Kitch, were in Devils Lake from Thursday evening to Monday morning. They shopped and saw the Legion's "Go and Get It."
Ruben Regan called at the James Nash home Saturday.
George Wass was a business caller at the Kitch farm Saturday.
W. D. Millar was a Devils Lake business visitor Wednesday.
Iner Faulk was a Thursday visitor at the Guy Barend home.
Mrs. Martin Johnson was in Devils Lake Wednesday to visit Mr. Johnson, who is a patient at the Mercy hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. Grover Garske and son, Clinton, spent the week end at the John Regan home in Devils Lake.
Claud Phillips spent Friday night in Devils Lake, where he attended the Legion show.
Arthur Newgard was called home Monday from the Herman Garske farm on account of the illness of his father.
Thomas Folk, who lives on the John Serurgard farm, was a business visitor in Devils Lake Monday.
Father Field of Starkweather, conducted the regular bi-weekly services at St. Peter and Paul's church Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. James Nash entertained Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Garske of Garske and Wm. Brooks of Starkweather.

Mrs. Clement Gingore, who has been seriously ill, is improving. Father Field was called to her bedside Monday.
Frank Munig, Henry Leet, Edgar Dale and Chester Swain autoed to Devils Lake Monday evening.
William Skowe and Tom McNamara went to Devils Lake Monday evening on the Fares' train, returning to Webster Tuesday morning.
J. E. Ward autoed to Devils Lake Tuesday evening on a short business trip.
Sorenson Bros. took out two new I. H. C. "Titans" Tuesday to be used on their large farm west of town. The Sorenson farm is one of the most up-to-date in the Lake Region.
Mrs. John Jones and Mrs. William McKay will entertain the Jolly Eight club and a few friends at the home of Mrs. McKay Friday evening.
Mrs. William Belford left for Devils Lake last Monday evening and returned Thursday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Zetler and children and Mrs. Howard Gilbraith spent Tuesday afternoon in town.
Mrs. William Belford was in Devils Lake over Friday night to attend the Legion show.
Miss Margaret Regan came home from St. Mary's Academy Saturday to spend the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Regan.
Miss Josephine Chisholm came up from Devils Lake Monday to visit school and friends, returning Tuesday evening.
Frank Frye left for Grand Forks Monday evening on a business trip. Mr. Frye expects to be home Wednesday morning.
Earl McNamara was a visitor in town Tuesday. —Cor. L.

DOYON

(Continued on Page 8)

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Arneson spent several days visiting friends and relatives last week.
Victor Berg, who has been very ill, is slowly improving.
The Ladies' aid was well attended last week at the home of Mrs. Ed. Bye.
A large crowd of Doyon people went to Devils Lake last Friday to see the play, "Go and Get It," given by the American Legion.
The dance given here last Friday night was fairly well attended considering the roads and weather.
Dr. Allen of Cray was called to the Roy Davidson farm last Thursday. One of the little boys having gotten a bean in his nose.
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Munro of Cray attended the dance here last Friday night.
Mrs. C. J. Arneson of Devils Lake attended Ladies aid here last week.
Alice Iverson has been visiting at the Iverson home the past week.
Several of the young people from here attended the Yoeman play in Cray Friday night.
Alma Aronson spent Saturday and Sunday visiting with Lillian Rasmussen.
Lawrence Johnson spent several days visiting in Devils Lake last week.
Vernice Arneson returned from Devils Lake where he has spent the winter and is now busy in the garage again.
There will be services in the Lutheran church on April 2, in the Norwegian language.
Several cars were in town last week. Sure of spring.
A few of the school boys broke thru ice last week and they received "free but cold baths," so they said.
Ed Bye is reported on the sick list this week.
Spring must be coming pretty soon for John Gilliard took home a new drill from town this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aronson, Mrs. A. K. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. John Berg visited at the Justin Berg home Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bastron entertained several of their friends at their home last Friday night.
Joseph Solberg of Lakota was the guest of Mrs. Andrew Anderson last week.
Eva and Melvin Berg, Mrs. Bastron and Clarence Dahl called at the Bytters' home Monday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Brander and Fred

Peterson called at the Resvick home

Sunday evening.
John Mahoney spent Sunday afternoon visiting in town with friends.
Elaine Byers had the misfortune of hurting her wrist quite badly last Sunday while playing.
Little Bobby Rice spent Saturday and Sunday visiting at the H. E. Rice home.
The mail man goes his route on horse back now, the roads being too bad to travel any other way.
C. J. Cruse visited in Lakota last week.
Mrs. Odegard spent Friday night visiting her sister, Mrs. D. D. Rice.
Mrs. William Braniff and little son called on Mrs. D. D. Rice Monday afternoon. —Cor. P.

HIGHLAND CENTER NEWS

(From Staff Correspondent)

Peter Bathgate has moved his stick and belongings to his farm (Dear Hill Farm) and is now each day preparing for spring operations. As a matter of convenience he stays at nights with one of his near neighbors, Joe Dobrovoney.
Gust Ellefson was an all night visitor Friday at the bachelor home of Joe Dobrovoney.
Miss Rose Kucher has been making an extended visit with her parents at Lankin, Walsh county.
Erick Norveson called at the clerk's office last week on matters pertaining to school business.
Upon the return home of H. G. McMurray from Grand Forks on Tuesday of last week, Mrs. Murdock McDonald returned to her family and home duties after an absence of five days, taking care of the McMurray home.
The Misses Dobrovoney of Prospect visited with their brother, Joe, Sunday afternoon, March 12th.
Erick Narveson, who was chosen as one of the delegates to the Ramsey County Nonpartisan League convention held in Devils Lake, March 16th, attended that gathering, and was elected from there as a delegate to the state convention, which will be held March 23rd at Fargo. Erick is without doubt a good man to send on so important a mission for he will do his best to mold and shapen matters in such a way as will be for the most good of all.
Ed. Dufok was a business visitor and shopper in Edmore Saturday and his son, Arthur, visited in Prospect at the home of Joe Kucher.
Selmer Sorenson was an Edmore shopper Saturday.
Henry Anderson made a visit to Edmore the latter part of the week.
There was considerable activity in the mammoth bronze turkey business at the McMurray farm last week.
Charles Hamann of Toma came to the farm Tuesday and purchased two Toms. J. W. Wright of Edmore purchased one Tom by phone Wednesday.
Martin Krogfoss of Prospect came to the farm Saturday and purchased one Tom. Mrs. Byberg of Newland purchased one by phone, Saturday afternoon. Henry Berg of Lankin, N. Dak., Walsh county, and who is going into the poultry business extensively, and making the M. B. turkeys a specialty, was also a caller Saturday in hope of buying a number of hens, but as Hern has had orders for turkey hens previous to this for nearly two hundred birds of his being old out of stock, he could not supply Mr. Berg's wants. The visitor pronounced Mc's birds and excellent lot.
The town board of Highland Center whose members are Sven Heland, Nels Myrvick, Joe Dufot, chairman, and M. A. McDonald, clerk, met at Oakland Central school and checked up all business for the last year, and are in proper shape to make a report on all business for the year.
Erick Narveson was a business visitor to Edmore Saturday, March 18.
Ben Erickson, one of the bus drivers, called at the school clerk's office Friday and procured all the warrants for the last school month which were then due. The teachers and bus drivers of Oakland school district, No. 21, of Highland Center township, are very fortunate in that all their warrants are full value and then money is always in school treasury waiting for them.
This should be especially gratifying to the teachers, bus drivers, and the school board, when one learns that some of the teachers in adjoining school districts have only had two and one half warrants cashed this school year.
Teams Damman was a visitor at the Ole Sorenson home Sunday afternoon. Selmer was home that afternoon, so the boys had a fine visit together.
Joe Dufot and family visited in Newland Sunday at the home of Mrs. Dufok's mother and brother. The grandmother has been somewhat under the weather, from a very severe cold, so that it was necessary to call Dr. Cox. At present time she is recovering nicely, and will again soon enjoy the beautiful sunshine that comes with spring time.
Joe Dobrovoney visited in Prospect Sunday with his folks. —Cor. I.

W. C. Wright of this city, who travels for the Farwell, Ozum Kirk Co. has just purchased a new Special Six Studebaker car from C. D. Haley and will use the machine during the coming season in making regular trips over the territory he covers.
Miss Vera Hinkle of Cando was in the city Friday night and attended the Legion show "Go and Get It."

FROM EXCHANGES

CHURCHS FERRY

(From Churchs Ferry Sun)
A young man, Corelius Skaar, 28 years old, died last Friday morning at the old home of his parents, 10 miles northwest of Leeds. He has for the last five years been suffering with consumption and all remedies proved fruitless. He spent a year at the Dunsmuir sanatorium and a year on the west coast. Since last fall he has kept to his bed. He was born in this vicinity and has many friends and acquaintances around Leeds. He was buried last Monday from the Rev. Frairie church north of Leeds, Rev. Caspersen performing the services. He leaves a brother and sister. His parents are both dead years ago.
I. E. Sorlie is a candidate for reelection to the office of county commissioner of the fifth district and will seek nomination at the June primaries. Mr. Sorlie has been a capable official and his announcement for reelection will meet with the approval of a large majority of the voters of the district.
Egeland won the basketball championship of the sixth district by defeating Devils Lake at the basketball tournament held in Devils Lake last Friday and Saturday. The score was 23 to 19. Churchs Ferry was matched against Egeland in the first game of the series and put up a plucky fight and made a creditable showing.
A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Lineburg, Thursday, March 9.
Mrs. Roy Noltimier left Friday evening for Sycrause, N. Y., where she will visit her cousin.
Churchs Ferry was well represented at the American Legion show Friday night at Devils Lake.
Walter Ebel and family will arrive this week to make their home. Mr. Ebel will work at the Motor Inn garage for Enger Bros.
Miss Iva Moen of Culbertson, Mont. who was the guest last week of her cousin, Evelyn Sorlie, returned to her home Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Sorlie and Mrs. J. G. Jacobson went to Leeds Saturday to attend the funeral of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Donovan.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Stansbury and daughter Nellie of Devils Lake were week end visitors at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Stansbury.
Ingvold Jordahl was at Devils Lake Monday between trains.
The editor was confined to his home a few days the first of the week with the flu.
Mrs. H. A. Moe and Mrs. John Overland entertained the M. E. Aid at the Moe home Thursday afternoon. A large number enjoyed the splendid lunch.
There was a good attendance at the Parent Teacher's meeting held in the high school assembly room Tuesday night. Miss Stenson, the county nurse, was present and spoke before the association on her work in the county. The remainder of the program consisted of the following musical numbers: a piano solo by Jonette Raftshol and a vocal solo by Eileen Hanson.
Rev. O. M. Bakke of Battle Lake, Minn., is holding special services this week in the Libanon church; he will be in Churchs Ferry Sunday and the first of the week will hold services in the settlement northwest of Leeds. Rev. Bakke is one of the traveling evangelists in the Lutheran Free church.
Rev. Caspersen returned a few days ago from a trip to Duluth and Minneapolis, having been absent about a week, his little daughter Mildred accompanying him. He attended the 25 year jubilee of the Trinity Church in Duluth and also an executive committee meeting of the mission board. On the hills in and around Duluth were the biggest piles of snow he had ever seen in his life; the snow heaps even surpassing those of the memorable storm 32 years ago. Between Minneapolis and Duluth the tops of the fence posts were just barely visible on level ground.

LAWTON

(From Lawton Republican)
Mrs. George Adler left for Duluth Wednesday to visit her niece, Mrs. John Mondshine of that city.
John Kennedy of Lakota was a business visitor in town Monday, returning home Tuesday morning.
Miss Ruger of Devils Lake came over Tuesday to look after business interests, returning home Thursday.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Krantz of Devils Lake, March 7, a boy; weight 7 1-4 lbs. Mother and son doing nicely.

James M. Shireck of the Security State Bank, arrived from Brockton Tuesday, where he has been detained through the flu in his family, himself being one of its victims for a few days.
The parent-teachers meeting held in the hall Wednesday evening was one of the most successful gatherings of its kind. Mrs. Vary of Lakota was the speaker. A fuller account next week.

The Lawton Battery Service Co. opened up for business Monday and are now doing a rushing business recharging batteries, mending tires, etc. See their ad for particulars and watch Lawton grow.

Saturday evening, March 4th, the following guests were entertained at a whist party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Leith; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith and family, Clifford Sanborn and family, Joe Hicks, Albert Hicks and family, Willie Leith of Southam, "Doc" Rainsberry of Brockton and Miss Helen Poissant of Saskatoon, Sask.
Gus Carvenka of Brockton was a business visitor in Lawton Tuesday.
Mrs. C. H. Creasy has been confined to the house all week with an attack of flu.

J. S. Anthony returned Tuesday from a business visit to Grand Forks and Fargo.
Misses Esby, Adler, Gibbons, Torkelson and Earl visited Lakota between trains Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Powers is enjoying a visit from her parents who arrived from Kelo Wednesday afternoon.
Mrs. J. G. Jensen and baby visited Grand Forks Wednesday.
Miss Everson visited Lakota Wednesday to have some dental work done.

Banker Oluf Hagen answered a business call to the county seat Wednesday.
Alanson Kops was a business visitor at Lakota, between trains Wednesday.

J. H. Langton visited the Lake yesterday.
Louis Olsen visited Grand Forks Tuesday on business.
Mr. and Mrs. Pat Connelly visited Devils Lake Tuesday.
The Misses Bruhjeil and Nestle of Edmore were in town Saturday between trains, the guests of Mrs. Louis Olsen.
James Gorecke of the Lawton Grain Co., is suffering from an attack of tonsillitis this week but is able to be up.

Wonderful Shoes

For Wonderful Girls

- Brown Calf Skin Oxfords
Welt soles and rubber heels ----- $3.50
- Black Kid Oxfords
Welt soles and rubber heels ----- $3.50
- Women's Black Kid Oxfords
Welt sole, cuban heel with rubber lifts ----- $5.00
Same in brown kid ----- $5.45

See our New Spring Styles before making your Next Purchase.

New York Cash Store

SEEDS

Just Unloaded a Carload of

Canadian Banner Oats

We also have on hand Orderbrucker Six Row Barley, Wilt Resistan Flax, and a complete line of farm seeds.

Place Your Order Now for EARLY OHIO POTATOES

DEVILS LAKE POTATOE & SEED HOUSE

Known as the Potato Warehouse

Better Harness for Less Money

Our own make are not to be compared with factory harness as they are not in that class, we use only the best of material and use plenty of it. They are not skimped in any way. Quality considered they are very reasonably priced.

- 1 1/2 inch Hip Strap Harness ----- $55.00
- 1 3/4 inch Hip Strap Harness ----- $58.00
- 1 1/2 inch Breeching Harness ----- $66.00
- 1 3/4 inch Breeching Harness ----- $70.00

We also have factory harness at less money if you wish them.

QUALITY SWEAT PADS

I am in a position to give more sweat pad value for the money than ever before owing to a large purchase at lowest price level which pads have reached in several years, last summer.

- 12-inch Yellow and White, all sizes, 100 per cent Deer hair, each ----- 75c
- 11-inch Enamel Drill, all sizes, 100 per cent Deer hair, two piece pads, each ----- $1.00
- 12-inch Enamel Drill, all sizes, 100 per cent Deer hair, one piece pad, $1.25

The above prices are less than I have ever been able to sell pads of equal quality at.

Our entire line of harness, collars and pads are priced very low — Quality considered.

Chas. B. Pillsbury

LEATHER GOODS

DEVILS LAKE,

NORTH DAKOTA

Our stock of spring Caps is already here, all the latest colors and styles.

Prices Reasonable See us before buying.

ARMY AND NAVY STORE

Devils Lake, N. Dak.

FORMALDEHYDE!

All states and federal departments of Agriculture advise farmers to treat their grain before seeding in order to avoid smut

Get your Formaldehyde from us. We have just received a fresh supply, and guarantee it to be the best procurable.

Special Prices in large Quantities

Ramsey Drug Co.

Devils Lake, North Dakota