Mr. and Mrs. Alex Slagg and daughters Ruth and Mildred of Pipestone, Minn., and Miss Cora Slagg of Fort Madison, Iowa, were visitors at the Slagg and Hayes homes several days the past week.

It is estimated that 3,000 people attended the Norwegian Lutheran picnic here Wednesday last week. Some very good speeches were given. Assemblyman Nelson and Rev. Stub of Chicago were among the speakers. The Edgerton band furnished music all day and in the afternoon a ball game was played between Edgerton and Cambridge.

As this is the time of the year when the many beautiful lakes of southern Wisconsin are at their best for picnics and family gatherings, the Whitford clan went to Taylor's Point Sunday to enjoy the day together. The time chosen was midway between the birthdays of Mrs. A. L. Whitford and her sister, Mrs. Julia Main of Orleans, Neb., who is spending some time in Wisconsin, and there are also several other birthdays in July and early August. The crowd gathered just before noon and a grassy, shady spot chosen where the bountiful dinner was spread and eaten in the sight and sound of the waves of the lake. Then followed the other enjoyable events, visiting, bathing and a ball game in which the men and women shared equally for honors.

A Slagg reunion was held at the John Slagg home here Sunday. There were 68 partook of the basket dinner served on the lawn. Those present were: Mrs. C. P. Slagg and daughter Jeanette of Atascadero, Colo., A. H. Slagg and family of Pipestone, Minn., E. A. James and family of Rapid City, S. D., Warren Tuft of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Those attending the Koshkonong Lutheran assembly at Albion speak well of it and hope it will continue to give such good and wholesome entertainment in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mathison and two sons of Madison called at Tony Anderson's Sunday. Mr. Anderson accompanied them to Fort Atkinson where they helped Allen Anderson celebrate his 33rd birthday.

Your correspondent, while out looking for news, ran into a coffee party at Mrs. Teddie Anderson's. Those attending were Mrs. Morgan Tostenson, Mrs. Lawrence Olson, Mrs. Ole Anderson, Mrs. Larson, and Miss Adeline Stewart of Chicago. I was asked to join them, which I did, and will say that you will not find such a treat in a whole day's drive.

The ice cream social given by the Ladies society last Friday evening was quite well attended, and was a success financially and socially. The program consisted of readings by Miss Anderson of Chicago and Miss Signe Halvorson of Rockdale, violin solo by Miss Esther Haight, assisted by Miss Ella Halvorson. Mr. Peterson played several pieces on an ordinary carpenter saw assisted by his sister on the piano, singing by the Scissors Guild of Rockdale, piano solo by Miss Anderson, a talk by Rev. Halvorson which was well received. All did their parts well and the program was highly complimented by those attending.
