

After Fifty Weeks of Hard Work

DURING the hottest weather, when you feel the results of a year's work, when the kids are having vacation and your wife is tiring of household routine, that is the time you long for a change.

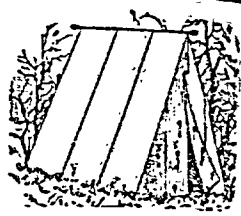

You want to forget your business, to drop the cares of living. Above all you want a change for yourself and your family.

If this is the case—the suggestions found on these pages will help you make your vacation worth while. You can loaf or play just as you please. The News Tribune will be glad to help you decide upon the place where you will have the best time—the most rest—good fishing, swimming, boating or hunting.
