

City in Tabloid

Woman Sues City for $75.

The sum of $75 for rugs, bedding and carpets, alleged damaged by water from a plug of the Duluth street sprinkling department, was asked in a claim filed yesterday at the office of the city clerk. Mrs. Ellan Baken, 102 First avenue East, put in the claim.

Home From State Fair.

Herrshel Serrant, Ben Golden, Ernest Salter and H. Miller of this city, have returned from a motor trip to Minneapolis and St. Paul, where they attended the state fair.

Trolley Company Sued.

Suit for $2,000 was filed in district court yesterday by Matilda Bennett against the Duluth Street Railway company. The plaintiff claims she tripped as she stepped from a street car while the cars were operating on temporary tracks.

Appeals From Land Award.

Notice of appeal from the award of commissioners made for land in the Whiteface river district, condemned by the Northern States Power company, was filed in district court yesterday by Axel Sundell. He was awarded $480, but claims his land is worth $1,600.

Lodge Plans Radio Concert.

Covenant lodge, B'nai B'rith will hold its first meeting at Covenant hall Tuesday. Plans for a radio concert Sept. 26, will be made.

B'nai B'rith Delegates to Chicago.

Charles D. Oreckovsky, second vice president of the district grand lodge of the B'nai B'rith, and Dr. Samuel Gross, director of intellectual advancement for the district, will attend the meeting of the general district committee at Chicago Sunday.

Theater Concert Announced.

Ed Matchett's Eveleth city band, which has been playing at the Tri-state fair, Superior, will give a free open air concert at 8:15 p. m. today in front of the New Lyric theater, it was announced yesterday.