

Jewish Club to Give Festival Year Ball

The Yom Kipper ball to be given tomorrow night at the Odd Fellows' hall, Lake avenue and First street, will be the first festival of the Jewish New year. This is under the auspices of the Northern Lights. Proceeds will be used toward paying the pledge made by the club to the Hebrew institute, Third avenue East and Third street.

The Northern Lights is a club of young men organized for the purpose of; social and educational activity among the youth of the Jewish faith. Nathan Kremen is president.

At meetings of the club social and educational questions are discussed. Prominent people are invited at various times to address them. Rabbi Alvin Luchs, of the Temple Emanuel, is a member and also acts in advisory capacity. H. Y. Josephs is another ardent supporter of the club and has given the boys fatherly advice and assisted them in many ways.

Following are the officers: Dr. Alvin Luchs, chairman; Nathan Kremen, president; Irving Rajhill, vice president. Morris Cohen, treasurer; Sam Rosenberg, secretary; I. Saks-onoff, Charles Greene, Ralph Ele-vitch, Ralph Levine, Ben Davis and Sam Segal, directors.
