

Superior Briefs

Pavement Dance Planned.

A public dance on the recently completed pavement laid in North Fifth street, has been planned by the North End Progressive association for Thursday night with the Rotary club band obtained to furnish music. Members of the association committee are: Hugh McDonald, Edward Luyre, Herman Aronsohn and Maurice Rudolph.

Band In Premier Concert.

The first opportunity to hear the recently organized Veterans of Foreign wars band was given to Superior citizens last night. In constant rehearsal the last few weeks, the 35-piece band played popular and national airs in a parade from Belknap street to Fifth street on Tower avenue and return. The band plans to give concerts at the city hospitals and county almshouses and other institutions. E. Wilmot, is bandmaster.

Scouts To Learn Life Saving.

How to throw a life belt and conduct rescues in a rowboat will be one of the life saving lessons to be taught Superior Boy Scouts Tuesday and Wednesday by Capt. Chauncey A. Hyatt, American Red Cross life saving instructor. The instructions in life saving and swimming will be conducted for boys at the Y. M. C. A. J. H. Krehler, Scout executive has requested that Scouts register at Scout headquarters in the Civic and Commerce association rooms.

Moonshine Seized by Police.

Superior police yesterday conducted raids with warrants and obtained four gallons of moonshine at 1513 Lackawanna avenue according to the return on the warrant. No arrest was made. It is probable that William Euginis, for whom the warrant was issued, will appear in municipal court tomorrow.

Auto Hits Man, Report.

A report that a car struck a man on the Nemadji river bridge, and then speeded away, was made yesterday to the police by a Mr. Kinville, 1420 Tower avenue. The car bore license number 229-193, according to the report. Records show that such a number was issued to James McPetridge, New Richmond, Wis.

Two Men Arrested.

Joseph Kolve, age 36, charged with petty larceny, and George Tetu, charged with speeding, were arrested by the Superior police yesterday.

Defies Volstead; Fined.

After changing his plea of not guilty to a charge of violating city liquor laws, Frank Ziegler yesterday paid a $200 fine in municipal court.

Independent Enters Field.

C. J. Whereatt, 1720 John avenue, filed papers as independent progressive candidate for the office of assemblyman in the First district, with W. J. Leader, clerk of Douglas county, yesterday. He will oppose Sixtus Lindahl, nominated at the recent primary election. Whereatt's action came on urging from labor organizations. Indorsement of Whereatt already has been made by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, No. 296.

Commissioners to Eveleth.

A. D. S. Gillett and John Schafer, Superior city commissioners, yesterday motored to Eveleth to attend the celebration opening of the Miller Trunk highway.

Court Fines Rowdy

After pleading guilty to a charge of being drunk and using abusive language, Walter O'Malley, age 26, yesterday paid a fine of $15 in municipal court.

Santery Signs Superior Pianist.

Fulton McGrath, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McGrath, 1812 Fourteenth street, Superior, well known juvenile piano player of the northwest, has signed a two-year contract to play with Henry Santrey's jazz band that was at the Orpheum theater last week. Fulton will join the band at Kansas City, Feb. 2, under terms of his contract. Fulton last year won the Bradbury piano scholarship at the Bradbury School of Music, Duluth. He also plays the xylophone and drums.

Farmers Apply for Picric Acid.

Douglas county farmers made application for 11,800 pounds of picric acid last week at the office of J. M. Walz, county agricultural agent. The acid of a surplus war supply is being used by farmers to clear their land of stumps. The county office has been allotted 50,000 pounds by the federal government.

Property Case Jury Disagrees.

After fruitless deliberation, a jury in the case of Robert Adamson against John C. Howe, et al. was discharged in circuit court yesterday morning by Judge W. R. Foley. Adamson, as representative of five other persons, charged that Howe, fraudulently misrepresented the value of certain property near Lake Nebagamon, inducing persons to buy the mortgages on the property.

Rail Shopman Fined.

A fine of $25 was imposed on Walter Niva, Great Northern railroad shopman, who pleaded guilty to a charge of violating national liquor laws when he appeared for sentence before Judge C. Z. Luse in federal court yesterday.

Judge Luse to LaCrosse.

Judge C. Z. Luse will leave tomorrow for LaCrosse where he will conduct a term of court for a period of eight or ten days. After court sessions are completed there he will return to Superior and remain until Nov. 7, when he will leave for Madison to conduct a session there.

Freed of Assault Charge.

After he was charged with assault, on complaint of Archie Johnson, Charles Kinville, age 45, was found not guilty by Judge J. B. French in municipal court yesterday, while Johnson was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 on a charge of drunkenness.

Divorce Complaint Filed.

Cruel and inhuman treatment is charged in a complaint filed in Superior court yesterday by Anna Katherine Drapeau, who seeks an absolute divorce from Peter H. Drapeau.