9:00 o'clock at Temple Aaron. He will read the prophetic portion and deliver a short talk. Mr. and Mrs. Butwinnick invite all their relatives and friends to attend the service.

Children's Service
The Children's synagogue service will be held Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock.

Sunday School
The Sunday School of Temple Aaron opened last Sunday with an enrollment close to 100. Children that have not yet enrolled can do so this Sunday, after which enrollment will close for the season. The following compose the school faculty: Mrs. H. Gallick, Miss Genevieve Winburgh, Miss Fannie Shapiro, Miss Hortense Horne, Miss Ivy Cohen and Miss Hazel Getz. Miss Annette Tatkin is the general assistant and Miss Lillian Neidorf, music teacher, with Phyllis Grosby assisting at the piano.

History Class
The class for Jewish history and literature under the joint auspices of the Council of Jewish Women, Y. W. H. A. and Temple Aaron Congregation, was organized last Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock, with a fair enrollment. There is room for a few more to join the class. No previous knowledge of Jewish history is necessary. Teachers of Sunday School and leaders of Jewish Clubs will find this class very beneficial to their work. The period to be taken up is that of the crusades up to the present day.

Alumni Association Elects Officers
A meeting of the Alumni Association of Temple Aaron was held Wednesday, October 18th. Election of officers was held. The following officers were elected: Sidney Zneimer was re-elected as president, Lawrence Appelbaum, vice president, Ilene Peilen, secretary, and Marcelle Harris, treasurer. It was decided to have a pow wow on Thursday, October 26th, at which new members are to be initiated. The next meeting of the Alumni will be held on Wednesday, November 1st. The Club has started out very nicely, and the coming year promises to be a very successful one.

LOCAL CONGRESS ORGANIZATION TO MEET
The St. Paul Jewish Congress Organization will meet on Thursday evening, November 2nd, at 8:00 o'clock, at the Aleph Beth Club. Organizations that have been affiliated with the local Congress committees are urged to send their delegates to this meeting, at which a permanent organization will be effected.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT OLD HOME FOR AGED CORNER STONE LAYING
In spite of the uncomfortable, cold damp weather last Sunday afternoon, approximately 500 people from St. Paul and Minneapolis attended the cornerstone laying exercises for the new building of the Jewish Home for the Aged. The occasion marked an epoch in Jewish Life of the Northwest, as was stated by Mr. Sol Fligelman, chairman of the program, in that it was the foundation stone of the first Jewish institutional building to be erected in this section for the Jewish people of the entire Northwest. Representing the State of Minnesota and the Governor, Attorney
