

Girls Outsmart Boys Honor Roll Shows

Hibbing, Nov. 4.—(Special.)—Although the grades averaged high through all the classes from the sixth including the eighth grade in Lincoln school, there were only 22 students from the three grades who got an average of 90 or above, which is the average in order to get on the honor roll. According to Roy Martin, principal of the Lincoln school, the grades were good averaging from above 80 to below 90.

A total of 11 students made the honor roll from the eighth grade. Eight were girls. Only two girls made the honor list from the seventh grade students. The sixth however had more boys than girls on the roll, with four girls and six boys.

Following is the list of students on the honor roll from the various grades:

Eighth grade: Lily Ahlstrom, Mabel Aubin, Alice Bartlett, Bernice Emery, Etony Finne, Edna Jacobson, Mary Smola, Fae Webb (5 subjects). All the other students are taking four subjects. Raymond Ellis, Ludwig Hellstrom, William Swolensky.

Seventh grade: Blessing Lippman and Annie Tyson.

Sixth grade: Gladys Ahlstrom, Rauni Lindgren, Nellie Hystrom, Margaret Olin, James Drake, Carl Erickson, Adam Gargano, Howard Scribner, Sam Sicilia, Burt St. Vincent.
