Chanukah Assembly—The assembly of the school on Sunday morning, December 17th, will take on a Chanukah spirit. There will be a short Chanukah service, followed by a talk on "The History of Chanukah," illustrated by stereopticon slides. The Ladies' Auxiliary will present each pupil with a handsome box of candy and Chanukah goodies.

Honor Roll—The Roll of Honor for the last two months contains the names of the following children: Class 1—Helen Ruth Hertz and Herschel Rubenstein. Class 2—Esther Harris, Doris Kepler and Bernice Levy. Class 3—Emmet Resig and Florence Gleckman. Class 4—Marion Goldstein and Mollie Wolkoff. Class 5—Adeline Tenzer and Minnie Zneimer.

Chanukah Entertainment — The Chanukah entertainment of the Temple schools will take place on Sunday, December 17th, at 2:30 o'clock. The program will consist of a Hebrew play "In the Days of the Maccabees," vocal and instrumental selections, and appropriate recitations. Admission will be by ticket only, to be had at the door for a very nominal price.

Chanukah Party — The Hebrew school will have a Chanukah party on Thursday, December 21st, at 5 o'clock. The program will be in Hebrew and will consist of the Lighting of the Candles, a series of songs, recitations and the Story of Chanukah illustrated by stereopticon slides. The children will receive boxes of candy and goodies as Chanukah gifts from the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Ladies' Auxiliary Meeting — The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Adath Yeshurun of Minneapolis will be the guests of Temple Aaron at their Chanukah meeting on Monday afternoon, December 18th, at 2:30. Besides important business to be transacted, there will be an interesting program of entertainment, followed by refreshments consisting of oldtime Chanukah goodies. Mr. Gus Loevinger will be the speaker of the day. Mr. Melvin Silver will render violin selections.

Temple Aaron Juniors—A group of high school boys and girls who just organized as Temple Aaron Juniors, to further their knowledge of Judaism, and co-operate in the work of the Temple, will have a Chanukah program Thursday evening, December 21st, at 7:30.

L. B. Schwartz to Speak at Membership Get-Together — The first quarterly meeting of the entire membership will be held on Wednesday evening, December 20th, at 8 o'clock. The question to be taken up will be "The Immediate Remodeling and Completion of the Temple," already unanimously approved by the Board of Directors. The meeting will be followed by a get-together and Chanukah party at which the Social committee will act as hosts. A very interesting program of musical numbers, skits and refreshments will conclude the evening. The main speaker of the occasion will be Mr. Louis B. Schwartz. A cordial invitation is extended to the Ladies' Auxiliary.

JUNIOR COUNCIL NOTES
The first of a series of programs in Yiddish arranged by the Social Service Committee of the Council of Jewish Juniors, Ruth Lipschultz, chairman, at the Jewish Home for the Aged every two months, was given on Sunday, December 10th. The members of the Brandeis Club, under the direction of Edith Warshavsky, furnished the Yiddish program, which consisted of recitations by Gertrude Lechtman and May Rom, and songs by Mollie Lubov and Francis Lapidus. Esther Farsht announced the numbers. This was followed by the singing of Hatikvah by the entire club. In addition, a Spanish dance was performed by Ida Yungend, accompanied on the violin by Ruth Zimmerman. Refreshments were served. The play to be given at the Tem-
