THE MARRIAGE of Lyman Ackley, Duluth musician, last month in Louisville, Ky., to Miss Thelma Ballou of that city, brings a new member to Duluth's musical circle, for Mrs. Ackley is also a singer. The wedding of Mr. Ackley and Miss Ballou took place at the home of the bride's parent, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Percy Ballou of Louisville, on the twenty-ninth of November. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Ackley have returned to Duluth and are making their home at 1514 East Fourth street.

AN UNUSUALLY pretty wedding which took place last evening was that of Miss Doris Sosnosky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sosnosky, West Fourth street, to Harris Goldman of this city. The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's gown was white charmeuse, with pearls and crystal beadings, and her veil was also caught with a band of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lily of the valley. Miss Esther Orekosky, who was the maid of honor was attractively gowned in green, and her flowers were pink roses. Little Miss Charlotte Bank wore a dainty little ruffled frock, and acted as flower girl. Mrs. Sosnosky, mother of the bride, wore a black gown beaded in black. An orchestra furnished the wedding music and Jack Goldman was his brother's attendant.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served to 75 guests, many of them relatives from out of the city. After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Goldman will be at home in Duluth.

A WEDDING, which was solemnized in Duluth Saturday was that of Miss Abba Johnson of Aurora, Minn., to Laurence Olson, also of Aurora, at the parsonage of the First Norwegian Lutheran church, the Rev. J. H. Stenberg performing the marriage service, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Gladys Halstorm of Au-rosa was the bride's only attendant and Vernon Olson was his brother's best man. Mr. and Mrs. Olson left Saturday evening for Rush City and other Minnesota points. They will make their home in Aurora.
