

SOCIETY

PEOPLE always say what they value most in a friend is sincerity.

Everybody likes the genuine, whole-hearted, straight-forward person. You can't help it. You believe thoroughly in what she says.

It is a fine trait, this sincerity. I have lately come to value it in a different way.

Lots of people are always sincere, but they are sincere about different things at different times.

They are so enthusiastic that they can always make themselves believe what they are saying at the time.

They are always sincere at any given moment, but their conversations do not match up.

They will condone with the office girl about how exacting the chief is and they will agree with the chief about how sloppy the office girl is.

They are always pleasant, always convincing, and every one likes them. But some day two or three of their friends will begin to check up.

And perhaps that reputation for genuineness will not stand the strain.

Everybody thinks that he or she is sincere. We all approve of honesty, and try to make our own acts seem honest to ourselves.

The only way to be really genuine is to stand on your own feet, and not be too much swayed by other people's words.—December Designer.

Social Happenings

COMPLIMENTING Miss Crystal McVeatty, who is leaving on Monday for Los Angeles where she will spend the winter, her sister, Mrs. L. B. Arnold and Mr. Arnold are entertaining at dinner at 7 o'clock tomorrow night at their home on Butte avenue.

MR. AND MRS. LLOYD BURG entertained their card club at a dinner at 7 o'clock last night at their home in Waverly park. Bridge was played during the evening.

MRS. GAGE BALDWIN is entertaining at luncheon at her home tomorrow in honor of Miss Hazel Brandler of Syracuse, N. Y., who is the house guest of Mrs. H. D. Alworth. This is but one of the series of delightful informal luncheons and dinners which have complimented Miss Brandler during her visit.

During the business meeting, Mrs. S. M. Polans reported on the Thanksgiving boxes sent to various needy, one being sent to a patient in a hospital in Denver. She announced lists were being made out for Hanuka cheer which will be sent to needy local families, and asked that members having names of such families submit them at once. Mrs. H. A. Shark reported for the Immigration committee, Mrs. Louis Zalk for the scholarship committee, which is at present supporting one pupil at business college and is considering another; Mrs. David Freimuth for the Bible class, which is to meet with Rabbi Luchs from 1:30 to 2:30 p. m. Saturdays, and Mrs. Harry Davis for the girls' work committee.

Social centers for girls and boys' clubs is to be held under the auspices of the council at the Franklin school on Monday nights, beginning next week. Mrs. M. Cook reported the organization of a club of boys from the hillside, who meet at her home on Sunday afternoons. Announcement of the Hanuka ball at the Spalding hotel on the night of Dec. 17 was also made. It was decided to aid the Lighthouse for the Blind in their work, through donating the use of automobiles when requested, aiding in promoting a sale of baskets and rugs in a downtown department store, and planning a social hour and program from Friday afternoon, Dec. 15. The resignation of Mrs. Harry Davis as corresponding secretary was accepted with regret and Mrs. J. Lieberman was unanimously elected to fill the unexpired term. Mrs. H. Y. Josephs and Mrs. S. M. Polans were appointed delegates to the United Jewish Charities council.

A social hour followed the interesting program which centered around the feast Hanuka. Miss Irene Levine, a young girl, read an original poem on the feast and lit the eight-branch candle stick. Mrs. Mondscheln gave an enthusiastic and inspiring talk on the origin and significance of the feast. Mrs. Joseph M. Averbrook gave the report of the activities of the religious committee of the National council which has for its slogan, the preservation of Judaism. Through the branches, this committee hopes to awaken an interest in the history and observances of the religious feasts, in the lives of the heroes and heroines of Jewish history, an dto further the maintenance of religious customs in the homes.

Over 100 women attended the meeting.

THE DULUTH TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION is launching an active working program this year. There are several problems of vital interest to the general body of teachers, such as teachers' load, tenurs of office, salary schedule and teachers' rating. In order to deal fairly and wisely with these problems the following committees have been appointed to make investigation here and in other parts of the United States:

Co-operative committee, who will work with principals committee on same problems, F. B. Carey, chairman, Central; Miss Margaret Adams, Denfeld; Miss Ida Crosby, Lincoln. Teachers' load committee, Adelaide Eaton, chairman, Adams; Charles Diers, Washington; Florence Ericson, Bryant and Claudia Allen, Central; tenure of office, Carl Schrover, chairman, Washington; Bell Flaherty, Washington; Daisy Thoirs, Franklin; and Gertrude Schiller, Jefferson. Salary schedule, Ellen Maten, chairman, Denfeld; Signe Anderson, Lincoln; Nell Boer, Franklin; Elsa Becker, Nettleton. Teachers rating, Leonore Snodgrass, chairman, Denfeld; Ruth Hodge, Irving; Meta Lautenslaugher, Munger, and Margaret Shaw, Washburn.

THE LESTER PARK LITERARY CLUB was entertained at the home of Mrs. F. A. Morris assisted by Mrs. Hazen S. Clark. Charles Roberts was in charge of the program. Thoroughly in keeping with the Yuletide season, the subject, "Peace," was carried out in a most delightful way. Mrs. Hazen Clark read her poem, "Peace," which she has dedicated to Mrs. P. L. De Voist of this city and which has been accepted by Stars and Stripes. Miss Betty Jamison, garbed in a white robe, symbolizing the character of Peace, acted out the poem with appropriate gestures to a musical accompaniment as Mrs. Clark read. Dean Walker of Trinity Episcopal cathedral gave a talk on the subject for the afternoon. In his remarks he averred that war is always a result, not a condition; that peace is a state of mind that comes from God; that peace will always have its opposition until all the forces of evil have been overcome; that the Christmas message of 1,900 years ago was, "Peace on earth," and if we will listen, the message is the same today; that there are only two things in religion—duty to God and duty to man—and that the Golden Rule applies to nations as well as individuals." He emphasized that there will be no lasting peace, as the world is beginning to realize, until nations learn to accept Jesus Christ.

Coming Events

THE ANNUAL SUPPER and bazaar will be given by the Ladies' Aid of the West Duluth Baptist church at the church parlors, Fifty-ninth avenue West and Grand avenue on Saturday evening. Everyone is welcome.

THE LARGE informal get-together meeting which the Duluth College club is planning for next week will take the form of a bridge tea on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Finch, 2910 Woodland avenue. All members are urged to attend the meeting, for although there will be cards for those who care to play, especially attractive arrangements have been made for members to sew or chat in comfortable chairs and divans. There will be no charge since the meeting is a purely social one to make the members acquainted with one another. The committee of College club women who are in charge of arrangements for the bridge, include Mrs. Carl Wise, Mrs. Spencer Searls, Mrs. Wilbur Joyce, Miss Margaret Hoyt and Mrs. Lloyd Burg.

ST. THOMAS AQUINAS GUILD will hold a sale of home bakery at the home of Mrs. Vincent Grady, 1231 East Second street, on Saturday.

THIS EVENING at 8 o'clock the Ladies' auxiliary lodge No. 46, to Clan Stewart, No. 59, will hold an initiation and business meeting at Foresters' hall B.

A CHRISTMAS BANQUET has been planned by the alumnae of the Central High School Girls' club to be given Dec. 27, at the Y. W. C. A. Arrangements are being made to have as many of the former members of the Girls' club present as possible. Miss Mildred Dunning is president of the Alumnae association. Miss Grace Angvik has charge of the arrangements for the banquet, and Miss Lucille Chalmers is planning a lively program of toasts and musical numbers. Those desirous of attending should make reservations as early as possible with Miss Mary McGonagle or Miss Angvik.
