

AUTO SHOW SPEEDS OFF TO FRESH START AGAIN, SNOW BRINGS IN LIVELY CROWD

By G. A. S. O'LINE.

Off to a fresh start!

See what the snow brought in!

Just two of the expressions heard at the Duluth automobile exposition last night. People imprisoned for two days by the blizzard rejoiced last night in the freedom of seeing the show, enjoying the dance, and reveling with song, amid the splendor of a million dollars worth of classy automobiles.

It was a big night, so big in fact that the merrymakers refused to leave until long after midnight, though the big tent was supposed to close the main entrance at 11 o'clock. It was responsible for a hurried meeting of the dealers' executive committee. Tonight and tomorrow night midnight will rule as the closing hour, the festivities for the evening program to start at 8 o'clock.

Though snowbound, the auto dealers of Duluth proved a happy lot. It was the jovial thought that Len McNamara, president, had to offer when he said, "We'll make up for the loss in attendance during the remaining two days of the show," whereupon Bill Daly, manager, bought a new pair of shoes and the show was off to a fresh start.

Two days coming from Minneapolis to Duluth was the experience of Miss Florence Holland, who added to the gayety last night by her arrival. Her singing was superb. She with Mr. De Musel added to the attractiveness of the carnival ten fold.

Then the candidates for Miss Liberty enjoyed the best night of the show. They obtained more votes. They were attired in the costumes of the nation they represented. The one who is to be honored with the title and receive the automobile, brought about considerable rivalry, so much so that the winner is in doubt.

Though the contest was to close tonight, the Miss Liberty final award has been extended another night. The ballot box will be closed at 9 o'clock Saturday night. Then the automobile will be presented. This event will be followed by a carnival of fun until midnight, when the eighth annual automobile exposition will become history.

The standing of the candidates for Miss Liberty at the close of last night's balloting was:

England—Effie Conway, 32.

Spain—Grayce Morris, 244.

France—Gladys Poulin, 291.

Sweden—Ebba Lundsten, 308.

Italy—Dorothy La Panta, 382.

Scotland—Mary Mackaskill, 82.

Bohemia—Betty Chramosta, 154.

Russia—Eva Shenowsky, 163.

Martin Rosendahl broke loose last night in the selling line and reports the sale of three Scripps-Booth cars and one Cleveland. It was Martin who said, "Look what the snow brought in."
