

Weddings

THE MARRIAGE OF Miss Ruth Frelmuth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Frelmuth, East Second street, to Milton Guthmann of this city took place at the bride's home at 8 o'clock last night. Rabbi Luchs performed the ceremony. The service took place in the smilax-hung living room which was lighted by tapers in tall standards. Golden daffodils and smilax decorated the other rooms.

The bride wore a gown of white brocaded chiffon velvet, elaborated with silver and pearls and carried a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Edna Frelmuth who was her sister's attendant wore jade green brocaded crepe embroidered in gold. She carried roses. The bride's mother, Mrs. I. Frelmuth, wore a model of black lace. Louis Guthmann of Chicago acted as his brother's best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for 150 guests and a buffet supper was served. Mr. Guthmann and his bride left for an eastern trip and will be at home in the city following their return.

Out-of-town guests for the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. Louis Guthmann, Mr. and Mrs. David Guthmann, Mrs. A. Wilson, Mrs. Annie Abeles, Mrs. Victor Kohn and Mrs. Sidney Berdre, all of Chicago; Mrs. J. D. Sattler of Milwaukee and Mrs. Abbey Abeles of Minneapolis.
