

City in Tabloid

Insurance to be Topic.

J. E. Hoff of Milwaukee will address the monthly meeting of the Duluth-Superior Credit Men's association Tuesday night at the Chamber of Commerce. His subject will be "Fire Insurance and Its Relation to the Credit Man."

Four Divorces Sought.

Four divorce actions were begun in district court yesterday. The cases filed were: Morris Polinsky, age 30, against Laura Polinsky, age 25, desertion; Stella Barrett, age 36, against James Barrett, age 44, cruel and inhuman treatment; Nannie E. Botten, age 26, against Carl Botten, age 40, cruel and inhuman treatment; Morris L. Zien, age 48, against Mae Zien, age 42, desertion.

Injury Suit Filed.

Suit for $5,190 was filed in district court yesterday by John C. Noumann against Gunder Bakke. Noumann alleges he was permanently injured when struck at Twelfth avenue West and Michigan street, March 24, by an automobile driven by Bakke.

New Trial Sought.

Notice of motion for new trial was filed in district court yesterday by attorneys for the Bridgeman-Russell company, defendants in a suit brought by the Williams Produce company. The produce company were awarded a verdict $720.92 by a jury, March 7. The plaintiff alleged the defendants refused to accept a carload of eggs, shipped them and they were forced to sell the eggs at a loss.

Rum Agent Makes Raid.

F. A. Nelson, federal prohibition agent, yesterday raided the establishment of Herman Wellmaa, 124 North First avenue East and the residence of Frank Laskey, 1210 West First street, confiscating a quantity of liquor at both places. Wellmaa was arrested and lodged in the St. Louis county jail. He will be arraigned Monday. Laskey is at large.

Gardeners to Employ Expert.

Members of the Duluth Market Gardeners association, at their meeting yesterday, decided to employ a garden expert to assist local gardeners in vegetable raising. A resolution was adopted urging the city council to begin construction on the East End unit of the public market.

Brotherhood to Initiate.

A class of candidates will be given the degree of brotherhood at the regular meeting of the Duluth Hebrew Brotherhood at Covenant hall tonight.

Suit Involves Timber.

Suit for $500 was filed in district court yesterday by Edward Lynch against the Minnesota Forest Products company. The plaintiff alleges that that amount is due him on a sale of timber lands to the defendant.