

Hebrew Institute to Hold Commencement Exercises

Commencement exercises at the Moses Montefiore Hebrew institute, 310 East Third street, will be held tomorrow. Fourteen Bar Mitzvah boys will be given diplomas, and pupils of the Sunday school and Hebrew school who distinguished themselves during the year will receive certificates of honor.

The program, beginning at 2:30 p. m. will open with a violin solo by Morris Kohn. Invocation will be delivered by Rabbi Israel Teplitz. The meaning and significance of the exercises will be explained by Marvin Aarons. Talks will be given by Rabbi Israel Lebendiger, S. Natelson and Mrs. A. Davidson.

The boys who are to receive diplomas follow: Marvin Aarons, Samuel Braverman, Max Chersensky, Benjamin Davis, Harry Fagel, Hyman Goldfarb, Abe Goldfin, Chene Goldin, Morris Gotkin, Louis King, Herbert Samuel, Alfred Weinberg, Hyman Widde and Paul Winer.
