TENS OF THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN in Duluth have enjoyed free bathing this summer through action of the Junior American Red Cross in Austria. The beautiful Miss Dausbe does not run across Vienna, and with the high water there very few children from the four districts can afford to ride to the shore's walk to reach the river. The boat's walk to frequent is conducive to frequent bathing.

It is a great desire for the Junior American Red Cross has been inculcated in the schools it was hoped that many children would be benefited if the school were closed during the war were closed.

At a minimum of expense, the Junior American Red Cross has been and will maintain throughout the summer 40 shower baths in the crowded school districts. A limited quantity of soap, hand brushes and wash cloths have been supplied. At more than 2,000 children have taken advantage of the baths each since they were opened.
