

Merchants Club Nominates Officers; Election Tuesday

Hibbing, Aug. 20. — (Special.) — Nomination of officers to be elected at the next meeting of the organization was the chief business taken up last night before the Retail Merchants' association. A fairly large number of merchants attended. Chairman William J. Ryder presided. The opinion prevailed that the organization should go ahead with plans to make the club a real benefit to merchants of all parts of the city. Nominations were as follows: For chairman, Edward Bergeron, John Curran, S. Sapero, Mrs. D. Powers and John Williams; for first vice president, Fred Klass and B. M. Lippman; for second vice president, L. C. Sullivan and E. S. Woolfan; for secretary, I. Feldman and L. Nides.

The board of directors will consist of merchants from North and South Hibbing, Brooklyn and First avenue. The list will be prepared by the secretary and submitted to the members for their approval. The next meeting of the club will be held at the Androy hotel at 8 p. m. Tuesday evening.
