

Games, Races to Feature Talmud Torah Picnic

The second annual Talmud Torah picnic of the Hebrew institute will be held at Lester park, Sunday. Rabbi Israel Lebendiger announced yesterday. The pupils will assemble at the institute at 9:30 a. m. from where they will be taken to the park in a chartered car.

Twenty-five prizes will be awarded to the winners of games and races. Julius Garon is chairman of the committee on arrangements; I. Garon, refreshments; Charles Oreckovsky, games and races, and Miss Mamie Weinberg, flowers.

"Special zest will be added to the holiday spirit of this picnic because of the exultant and joyful mood reigning among the members and friends of the institute due to the recent ratification of the Palestinian mandate by the League of Nations favoring the upbuilding of a national Jewish home in Palestine," Rabbi Lebendiger said.
