Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Carlson motored to Hibbing Sunday for the day.

Miss Vera Nelson spent Saturday and Sunday at Eveleth with her parents.

Mrs. George Barbeau went to Eveleth Tuesday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Gus Kohrt.

The regular meeting of the Job's Daughters was held Saturday afternoon at the Masonic lodge rooms.

Mrs. James Nicholas and Mrs. C. J. Nelson motored to Aurora Friday. They were accompanied home by Miss Hazel Nicholas.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Desjardins of Duluth were in the city Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Richard Pearce.

The dinner dance at the Forest Hotel on Thursday was well attended and a fine time enjoyed to the music of Buddy's Orchestra.

Burnside Lodge was the scene of a dinner dance on Friday evening and a large number attended. Music was furnished by the "Six Aces."

Mrs. Matt Ronka has arrived from New York and will spend the summer here at her home on the Shagawa Lake road north of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Champa and Jos. Champa returned Saturday from an auto trip to Winsor, Canada, and Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. Fred Neff had the misfortune to fall last week and break her arm. Her daughter, Mrs. R. Grierson of Virginia is in the city in attendance of her mother.

SAFETY AND SERVICE

WOMEN'S IMPORTANCE IN THE FIELD OF FINANCE

is constantly growing. This is graphically illustrated by the fact that today, over 41% of the individual income taxes are paid by women.

Moreover, when it comes to incomes of $100,000 or more, over 50% are controlled by women. Certainly, in view of these facts, every woman should maintain a Checking Account, in order to manage her personal finances in the modern, efficient, business-like manner.

This bank makes a specialty of women's accounts. Their business, no matter what its size, is always assured a cordial welcome here.

A class of six from Ely were initiated into Eveleth Lodge No. 1161, B. P. O. E. Friday night at Eveleth. Those who were initiated were Joe Muirich, Joe Komstar, J. Pete Joe Gerdin, Jr., Adolph Dolensik and Adolph Schroeder.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dorrner and son, Richard of Buhl motored to the city Friday. Mrs. Dorrner was a guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Trezona, while Mr. Dorrner and son went to Knife Lake on a fishing trip. They returned to their home Sunday.

Mrs. Susanna Mattila, a resident of this city for many years, was buried Saturday from the Finnish church. She was 63 years of age and is survived by her husband, three daughters and one son. One of the daughters is Mrs. Vera Tabell of the city hospital. The son, John Antio is a resident of Benton Harbor, Michigan, and with Mrs. Antio attended the funeral.

The Miller Store has been undergoing a week of remodeling. The office is now located in the rear of the store room and a garage has been constructed with a leading platform in the back of the building. The office formerly extended over onto the lot recently purchased by the Wilderness Outfitters. The Hayes Jewelry store will also be remodeled.

Mr. and Mrs. David McRoberts of Minneapolis who are guests at Burnside Lodge, entertained at a dinner dance Sunday evening in celebration of their tenth wedding anniversary. The table was beautifully decorated with horseshoe of rose carnations and rose sweet peas with evergreen. A corsage bouquet for each lady and rose colored candles in silver candlesticks. Covers were laid for fourteen. Ely guests were Miss Myrtle Bauch, Miss Vera Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Trezona, Dr. J. J. Call and "Chick" Lindberk. Out-of-town guests were Mr. Harry Glass of California, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flannigan, Mrs. Bea Eden and Miss Maud Werts of Gilbert; Mr. and Mrs. Neils Beidrof and Miss Leone Thoren of Duluth. Six Aces of Ely played during the dinner and for the dance that followed.

The Junior College Prom was held at Burnside Lodge on Wednesday evening and was an enjoyable event according to all reports. After a fine dinner, dancing to the music of the Six Aces was indulged in.

Joseph Grabek, the 14-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Grabek, died Monday after a lengthy illness. A cancerous affection with which he has been suffering for some time caused the operation of his liver three years ago. He failed to improve and death resulted on Monday. The funeral took place Wednesday from the Catholic church. He is survived by his parents and five sisters.

Arne Kowalko and a party of four from Pine City were in the Knife Lake district several days the early part of the week and returned with fifty lake trout, the largest of which was twenty-two pounds and the others averaging between three and five pounds each. The party left for their homes Tuesday and were accompanied by Bern Lambert who will spend a few days with relatives at Pine City.

The members of the Ely Rotary Club with their ladies were the guests of the Ely orchestra and Mrs. Hal Cook at Burnside Lodge on Wednesday evening. No special program had been prepared for the evening. President Browne expressed the thanks of the Club to the host and hostess for the very excellent service served. A feature of the gathering was the singing of Harry Davidson, pilot for the "Robin" who was a guest of Herb Kurvinen on that evening. He gave three very fine solos unaccompanied.

The local High School Orchestra went to Aurora Sunday and played the exchange concert that afternoon. The Aurora orchestra was here several weeks ago and gave their concert. The orchestra went down in the school buses and returned that evening. On the road back the buses were stuck in the mud on the new road in Soudan and were not released until after 1 o'clock that night. The concert was well received by the Aurora people who filled the auditorium to the doors. In the absence of Miss Gjerstad who was to be the vocal soloist for the day, John Nauken was presented into service and gave two vocal numbers.

The remains of Ernest Seliskar who met death by falling under a train in Montana early last week arrived in the city Saturday and was prepared for burial at the Laing Undertaking Parlor. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from the home, Rev. C. P. Keast of the Methodist church conducting the last rites. A guest from the church choir sang appropriate songs. The funeral was largely attended. He was born in Jugoslavia 34 years ago and has been a resident of this city for nearly thirty years. Surviving him are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seliskar, one brother, August; three sisters, Mrs. Frank Jenko, Alice and Christine Seliskar. The lodge of which he was a member attended the funeral in a body. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful.

MUNICIPALITIES LEAGUE AT AUSTIN

LEAGUE AND NEWLY FORMED MINNESOTA MUNICIPAL PUBLIC UTILITY CONFERENCE WILL DISCUSS MATTERS OF IMPORTANCE AT AUSTIN MEET.

The newly formed Minnesota Municipal Public Utility Conference will hold its first annual meeting together with the League of Minnesota Municipalities at Austin, June 12, 13 and 14. The conference will meet jointly with the Minnesota Association of the American Water Works Association for round table discussions on the first and third days, and with the League group on the second day of the convention.

The discussion on Wednesday, June 12, will be devoted to the subjects of radio interference, Diesel engines, merchandising of electrical appliances and accounting methods. The speakers will be D. F. Cottam, Northern States Power Company, Minneapolis; C. F. Bacon, superintendent of the light plant, Fairmont, Minnesota; H. N. Anderson, Fairbanks, Morse & Co., and F. C. Brooks, Busch-Sulzer Diesel Engine Company, St. Louis.

The Thursday session will meet together with the League for discussion of public utility regulation, water supplies, fire insurance rating, and sewage disposal. On Friday, June 14, the public utility groups will again meet separately. The subjects will include "Some Financial Aspects of Water and Sewage Systems," by Arthur S. Millnowski, consulting engineer, St. Paul; and "How Meters Reduce Water Consumption," by M. C. Bright, superintendent of the water, light and steam plant, Buhl, Minnesota.

R. M. Finch, Minneapolis, is secretary-treasurer of the Minnesota Section of the American Water Works Association. W. D. McKay, secretary of the water and light board, Brainerd, is chairman of a special committee on organization of the Municipal Public Utility Conference.

Discussion of several problems of current interest to Minnesota city and village officials will be featured on the program of the sixteenth annual convention of the League of Minnesota Municipalities, which will meet at Austin for the three days commencing June 12. Problems of public utility regulation, zoning, fire insurance rating, apprehension of criminals, radio interference, and schools and conferences for public service, will be among the principal subjects considered.

An entire session will be devoted to the consideration of the many phases of the public utility situation, with several men of national reputation in this field scheduled to speak. Martin G. Glaser, professor of economics at the University of Wisconsin, will present "Some Present-Day Issues in Public Utility Regulation." Edward T. Morehouse, managing editor, Journal of Land Economics and Public Utilities, Northwestern University, will speak on "Present and Possible Future of Municipal Ownership of Electric Plants." A discussion of "Franchises and Contracts" will be offered by Frederic E. Geary, president of economists at the University of Minnesota. R. F. Pack, vice-president and general manager, Northern States Power Co., Minneapolis, will discuss the subject, "Rate Making—Relationships of Public Utility Corporations to Municipalities."

A great deal of interest has already been shown by municipal officials in the matter of zoning, now made possible for all cities and villages in Minnesota since the passage of the zoning enabling act at the recent session of the legislature. L. W. Loebe, alderman of the city of Minneapolis, chairman of the League Committee on Zoning which gave effective support to the zoning bill, will report on the history of the law and explain its application. In addition, the legal aspects of zoning and the various steps and procedure in passing a zoning ordinance will be presented through discussions led by A. C. Godward, executive engineer, Minneapolis Committee; Frederic Baas, professor of municipal engineering, University of Minnesota; George Herold, city planning engineer, St. Paul; and Herman Olson, city planning engineer, Minneapolis.

General Walter F. Rhinow of the State Bureau for Criminal Apprehension, will speak on the "Relationship Between State and Municipalities in Connection with the Apprehension of Criminals." Other police problems will be discussed in connection with the proposed organization of a Minnesota Police Conference. The many factors which are considered in the grading of municipalities to determine fire insurance classes will be explained by C. P. Holmes of the General Inspection Bureau, Minneapolis. Harry Phinney, city engineer of Morris, Minnesota, vice-president of the League, and chairman, League committee on fire insurance, will report on the successful fight for reduction of fire insurance rates sponsored by the League last fall.

The discussion on problems of radio interference will be conducted by D. F. Cottam, Northern States Power Company, Minneapolis, and John P. Dellsell, League counsel. The outstanding accomplishments of various municipalities in different fields of activity will be presented by representatives of these communities. Reports will be made together with announcements of future plans for the several schools and conferences for municipal officials sponsored by the League. Reports of League officers and League committees will also be given during this session.

tored to Duluth on Friday where they spent several days.

Miss Alice Pennala, who has been teaching at East Lake returned to her home here last week.

On Thursday evening of last week a farewell party was rendered the Misses Isabel Thoma and Marguerite Lyman at the O'Connell cottage. They were presented with gifts, as appreciation for their services.

On Monday evening, June 3, the annual school exhibit and open house will be held in the Section Thirty School. On Wednesday afternoon the closing exercises and program will be given.
