

RABBI MEKLER TAKES POST IN SIOUX FALLS

Leader of Hebrew Congregation is Tendered Farewell Reception Sunday

Rabbi J. H. Mekler of the Bismarck Hebrew congregation has accepted a call to become rabbi of the Sons of Israel Congregation at Sioux Falls, S. D. He plans to leave Bismarck with Mrs. Mekler and their two children next week.

Rabbi Mekler came here more than two and a half years ago from Grand Forks, where he headed the Hebrew Institute and the Independent Children of Israel Congregation. His Bismarck congregation embraces Jews from the entire Missouri Slope country.

When he came here services were conducted in the downtown hall through his efforts the Bismarck Synagogue, regarded as the finest in the state, was constructed. Construction was started in 1929 and in 1930 it was dedicated with impressive ceremonies which brought many prominent in Jewry and the state's life to Bismarck.

Rabbi Mekler is a graduate of the Vilna Rabbinical Seminary in southeastern Lithuania. From that city has come some of the foremost Hebrew scholars of modern times. Coming to the United States in 1920, Rabbi Mekler was ordained at Boston and awarded rabbinical degrees by rabbis of the Orthodox synagogues. He later came to North Dakota, attending the University of Grand Forks where he obtained his B. A. degree in 1929.

Sunday night a surprise party was given in the rabbi's honor by members of the congregation, and gifts were presented to him and Mrs. Mekler. The party was given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the congregation, and was directed by Mrs. M. Zvorist, Mrs. Abe Tolchinsky, and Mrs. C. B. Rosen. Regret was expressed at the rabbi's departure and well wishes extended to him in his new undertaking.

Bridge was played at 10 tables during the evening and score prizes were awarded Miss Caroline Macovos, Ed Tilson and G. Svaren.

Those attending from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. J. Kremensky and family and Mr. and Mrs. R. Miller and family, all of Turtle; Mrs. T. Polonsky and daughters, Celia and Esther, Wilton; Mr. and Mrs. J. Marcovitz, Mr. and Mrs. R. Greengard, Mandan, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Svaren, Flasher.

Emmett O'Connor, Bodil Rosing and little Dickie Moore in supporting roles. The story, by Martin Flavin, famous playwright, who once had three plays showing on Broadway at the same time, among them "The Criminal Code," courageously pictures the dangers lurking for immigrant girls in boarding houses, carelessly policed parks, and cheap dance halls.

Betty Compton Excellent Miss Compton is "Helga," an immigrant girl. Critics at a Hollywood preview unanimously agreed that she rises to a higher emotional tempo than in "The Miracle Man," her most memorable triumph, which established Miss Compton as a dramatic figure, is repeated in the final scenes of "Three Who Loved."

PARAMOUNT THEATRE Expensive gambling paraphernalia was destroyed in the filming of "Smart Money," the Warner Bros. picture which is now playing at the Paramount theatre. In this film, Edward G. Robinson plays the part of a small town Greek barber who becomes a big time gambler. The gambling was done in the casino which he opens and which is ultimately raided by the police. In the raid, an expensive roulette layout was smashed beyond repair.
