

MAYFAIR

Grosse Ile Sophomores Set for Gay Carnival Saturday

U. OF D. ALUMNI LEAD GALA 'GYM' DANCE

YOU CAN JUST COUNT ON IT... THAT FOR THE most part bridge and dancing will be the main social events in local Mayfair....

Up until the time that Lent sets.... Now we hear that the University of Detroit Alumni....

Are featuring these two headliners at the "One Gala Night" they have planned to take place at the school on January 17....

Both alumni and present students are working for this party.... which will raise funds for the school....

THE NIGHT of January 17.... the gala night, remember.... the gymnasium of the school will be all prettied up in colors of red and white....

For the dancing that is to go on there.... Mrs. George D. Noble and Mrs. Charles J. McCabe.... are co-chairman for the party.... and have enlisted the aid of many assistants....

While there is music and tripping about in the gymnasium.... the Parent-Teachers' Association of the high school.... have arranged for bridge playing in the dining room....

There will be door prizes.... and many other features that should make tickets go just like mad....

Stag Line Aids Committee Work

ON THE alumnae committee we find Mrs. Charles Carroll.... Mrs. William E. Keane.... and Mrs. John C. Natus....

Then there's a publicity committee.... members of which include Mrs. Raymond Kelly.... Mrs. John C. Manning.... and Mrs. John J. Maher....

The student dance committee.... (and these young men give their word that the music will be something extra special at the Gala Night!).... includes Jo Scallen.... Bud Brennan.... Jim Cleary.... Bob Slattery.... Tom Feldman.... Jo Hill.... Leo Marcoux.... Bill Miller.... Bob Pfeffer.... and Johnnie Wallace....

All up and coming young members of the stag line.... We might mention at this point.... that Mrs. Harold G. Carron is president of the Parent-Teachers' Association.... which is doing so much for the "One Gala Night"....

THEN JUST to further show you what kind of a good party this is going to be....

Those two attractive daughters of the C. Roland Risdon.... Peggy and Ruth.... along with their mama.... Have set aside their Florida plans until after January 17....

Just so that they can help put the party over.... The gentlemen of the Risdon family.... however.... have already left for their annual sojourn in Florida....

Gesu Church Bazar Sets Mark

AMONG OTHERS who are actively interested in the party are:

Mesdames Leo P. Brabant.... Emil Colombo.... Arthur Cronin.... M. E. Coyle.... William J. Cleary.... Hanley Dawson.... John A. Dyer.... Robert A. Ditrich.... Alfred J. Fisher.... Charles T. Fisher.... Daniel C. Fisher.... Ralph H. Finneren....

Keith Fraser.... A. S. Furman.... Arthur G. Kirchner.... Howard Keating.... John H. Knapp.... Peter E. Martin.... G. L. McClellan.... Leo J. Marcoux.... John P. O'Hara.... A. J. Morrissey.... C. Roland Risdon.... and A. J. Tindell....

You know.... there's a new goal for benefit parties.... ever since Gesu Church's Bazar held last month....

It set a new high for all time on party proceeds.... when the bankbook which records the funds to build Gesu Church showed $30,000 as the amount made at that bazar....

That's a challenge, isn't it!....

OF ALL the young men of the stag line....

We think that Les Jones.... runs the most consistently.... when it comes to taking out Detroit's loveliest looking girls....

For many months.... he squired the beautiful Sally Yinkey about the town....

Sally has gone to live in New York, you know....

And just the other evening we saw him with Mary Catherine Reynolds.... post debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrington E. Walker....

Al's Nuptial News Anticipated

THERE'S ANOTHER matter that's been on our minds for quite some time.... and you know how an idea upsets us!....

But we wonder if in the city charter.... or in some other important document.... there is a statement to the effect.... that Al Glancy Jr.... may go out with only engaged girls....

We've seen Al escorting the affianced young women of Mayfair about so much of late....

That every time an engagement is announced in society columns now.... we automatically expect to see Al at some smart function.... being very gallant to the young woman in question....

Just recently we've noted him with Betty Tant.... who is engaged to Chuck Jewett.... and immediately following Valerie Depew's engagement to Washburne Wright of New York....

There was Al.... leading Val into the Princeton Triangle Show at Orchestra Hall....

We think it's awfully nice of him.... but we also are prone to side in with a lot of post debutantes who well realize the meagerness of Detroit stag line.... and think that Al.... even as John.... should speak for himself....

Sandals Are Still Popular

THE TWINKLING slippers that danced at the Winter balls have interested us....

To the point where today we come right out and say.... that sandals are still the most popular of all modes of evening footwear with smart debutantes and matrons....

Airielle Frazer.... seems to favor a pair of gold kid sandals.... which are designed with very broad strips of the kid.... over the instep.... and are absolutely toeless....

Patricia Schlotman wins honors for wearing the daintiest white satin sandals.... they weren't slippers at all.... but just a few very narrow strips of satin crossing her little feet.... we hope all her partners were good dancers.... for there was little protection from the new "trickers".... and from those who are learning the rhumba, etc., at this late date....

Mrs. C. Henry Buhl.... who also wins honors for wearing the largest flower in Detroit on her white sheer crepe evening gown.... (it was immense and very chic!).... dances in brief red and silver sandals....

And now that we're just about at the end of this column....

Did you ever know that Lily Pons was once Gilbert Pincree's stepmother?

POST DEBS MEET FOR COCKTAILS

THE CAMERAMAN found Mrs. Thomas Klingensmith telling some one all about her brand new daughter, Marion Scotten.

MARY FARLEY came in from a long snowy tramp, all done up in a turtle neck sweater and fur collar.

BETTY BERTOLI wore a deep pleated collar on her taffeta frock and a fetching tiny velvet beret.

MRS. ROBERT BRUNA POWERS wore brown velvet beaded in gold for the cocktail party. Before her marriage in the early Winter she was Josephine Sibley. (Int'l News photos by Times.)

STUDENTS MAP FETE WITH NEW VARIETY OF PARTY STUNTS

GROSSE ILE, Jan. 11. The sophomore class of the Grosse Ile High School promises heaps of fun, a new bag of tricks and surprises for the carnival it will hold next Saturday evening at the school auditorium.

Bill Schoenherr is to be general manager and he has asked Mary Roma Pinkerton, Kathleen Mills and Peggy Burnett to plan refreshments. Phil Harrington will have charge of booths and his helpers will be Gerald Hagerstrom and Wilfred Cullerne. George Johnston is making arrangements for amusements, such as fortune telling, boxing and wrestling matches, fish pond, House of Horrors and many other fun provoking stunts. Gloria Brown, as class president, is sharing in all these preparations.

The holiday spirit seems still to prevail, even though there are fewer parties. A gay surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Roy Montgomery Saturday evening at their home in East River road, the occasion being the birthday of Mrs. Montgomery and also the wedding anniversary of the Montgomerys.

Buffet Supper Served The couple felt very bride and groomish when they opened the assortment of kitchen utensils guests had brought to furnish the ultra-modern kitchen the Montgomerys have just built. After an evening of games and bridge a buffet supper was served at midnight to Mrs. Gustave Schimmel and
