

Kingswood Girls to Give First Formal Dance at Bloomfield Hills Friday

DINING HALL AT SCHOOL WILL BE TRANSFORMED INTO HUGE 'VALENTINE'

BLOOMFIELD HILLS, Feb. 8. Great red hearts with lace edges and a false ceiling of red and silver balloons will transform the dining hall at Kingswood School, Friday, into a gigantic old-fashioned valentine. In this atmosphere the girls will entertain at their first formal dance of the season.

Barbara Tillotson, Francis Ann Morley, Beverly Holzworth, Gladys Barker and Della Mae Clemmer have planned the decorations and the details for the party are being carried out by a committee composed of Annabel Avery, Nancy Barnett, Betty Ball, Doris Richard, Nancy Strelinger, Jeanne Fisher and Barbara LeGro. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fayer, Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Strelinger and Dr. and Mrs. Albert L. LeGro will be patrons.

Tones Honored

Mr. and Mrs. F. Jerome Toney Jr., formerly of the Hills and now making their home in Niagara Falls, N. Y., are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gillette Jr. of Wing Lake. This week has been filled with parties honoring the guests.

Mrs. Edward Proctor of Grosse Pointe entertained Wednesday at luncheon in her home for Mrs. Toney. Mrs. Joseph F. Page was hostess Thursday at luncheon and that evening Mr. and Mrs. William H. Colvin Jr. invited a group of old friends of the Tones for dinner. Mrs. Robert Halsted entertained Friday at luncheon and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Kellett honored the visitors with a dinner in their home at Cranbrook.

Another group had luncheon Saturday at the lodge of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pittman at Orion and they later gathered at the Gillette home for dinner. The Tones will leave for their home Sunday.

Plan Trips South

For the pleasure of Mrs. Lloyd Goulet (Lucille Owen), a recent bride, Miss Jane Lee entertained 22 guests at supper and a shower in her home on Martell drive Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fitch Jr. of Martell drive will leave next week for Nakoma, Fla. They will be accompanied by their daughter, Miss Barbara, and plan to remain in the south three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Cloud Cray of Walnut Lake road are planning to take a West Indies cruise about February 20. Mr. and Mrs. Cray entertained at a coasting party and supper at their home Saturday night. Mrs. Harry Klinger and Mrs. Guy Brown also will leave next week for a trip down the east coast of Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber W. Peters returned to their home on Martell drive Sunday after a fortnight at Lake Placid. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Winnicham will return this week from a visit at Dixiana, the home of the Charles Fishers Jr., near Lexington, Ky., where they were the guests of Miss Mary and Everell Fisher.

Garden Club Meets

Mrs. Theodore F. MacManus arrived at Stonecroft Monday after spending the last month with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Toluboff, in Hollywood, Cal.

Miss Marion Singer entertained the members of her sewing club at luncheon Tuesday. Mrs. Lynn D. Halsted was hostess the same day to her bridge group at tea in her home on Lone Pine road.

The Bloomfield branch of the National Farm and Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Lyman Craig, Oak Knob Farms, February 17. Edith Mosher-Place will speak on "Spring Planting" and Mrs. Maurice Castell will talk on the "Greens Market."

The Orchard Lake Country Club formal dinner dance is rapidly taking form and 200 invitations have been issued to members and their guests. The party will be held at the Book-Cadillac Hotel next Saturday, and the Mayfair acts will be part of the entertainment.

A number of cocktail parties are being planned, among them being that of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scripps Booth, who are inviting friends to join them; and another group who will have cocktails and dine together will include Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Paterson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gray Muzzy, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon R. Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Joslyn, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Eden and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whiting.

AID NEEDY INFANTS

THESE MEMBERS of the Infants' Service Group are promoting a Valentine dinner dance to be held by the society this Sunday at 6 o'clock in Oriole Terrace. Proceeds will be used to provide medical care, pay for hospitalization and buy food and clothing for babies in needy families. Left to right: Mrs. Morris Wittus, chairman; Mrs. George S. Jackson, Mrs. Albert R. Marans and Mrs. Samuel L. Merson. (International News photograph by The Detroit Times.)

'MAD MARCH HARES' ANNOUNCE BUNNY HOP AT STATLER ON FEB. 28

Mary Alice Finney Reveals 'Something Tricky' in Way of Decorations

By the Dowager

WE'VE BEEN talking with Mary Alice Finney. Mary Alice, you know, is the newly elected president of those "Mad March Hares." Their newest stunt is a Bunny Hop to be held at the Statler, February 28. We know they will have something tricky in the way of decorations.

Have heard they are looking high and low for a pair of enormous bunnies. But enough of that, maybe we should keep the rest of the decorations a secret.

Some of the gay inseparables who can be counted on to turn out in their newest and prettiest are Mary Alice and Dick Harroun, Barbara Bradbeer, John Cole, Margaret Reid, Bill Dawe, Kay Stevens, Ralph Keller, Marilyn Gittens and Stewart Hoffman.

Mrs. Edward M. Plunkett of Strathcona drive, entertained at a bridge luncheon, Monday, at the Detroit Golf Club. The first question every one asked was: "What do you hear from Dorothy?" Dorothy Plunkett is studying interior decorating at the Fairmont School in Washington, but also has time for a flying trip here and there.

It seems that she visited in Baltimore last week-end and had a delightful time.

Go West, South

The list of Detroiters wending their way to sunnier climates grows longer every day. The J. L. Readers will be on their way to California some time this month. Mrs. Thomas H. Stephens of Boston boulevard left last Saturday to spend the rest of the winter in Pasadena. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Rich of Ransom drive have gone to Honolulu for a month, and the Mark Wickhams are leaving in a week or so for Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Emmott of Farrand Park left Monday for New Orleans where they will attend the Mardi Gras, then continuing their trip to Palm Springs, Cal. Eugene plans are that they will visit the Grand Canyon and then sail for Honolulu, returning about May 1.

Miss Carly Jane Finney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Finney of Tuxedo avenue, is spending six weeks in Miami where she is the guest of her uncle, Harold Finney and her aunt, Miss Mary Alice Finney.

Month in Florida

Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Pfister of Westminster avenue, left Friday for a month's stay in Florida.

Leah Roberts Jr., who has been home from Culver, left Monday to continue his studies.

Clarence Dowett of Calvert avenue, has returned the favor. He came in from Michigan this week-end and decided to spend the Grand Canyon school for him next term.

All of Oscar Olson's friends and well wishers (and they are legion) were delighted to see him emerge from his long retirement.

The occasion was the wedding of Mary Margaret Miller and Sterling Dockson which was solemnized at St. Anthony's Church. Oscar has been "hors de combat" ever since his return from college at Miami last June and it's good to have him out once more.

Youngsters Entertain

Even the very youngest set are entertaining these days. Little Elizabeth Ann Lind, daughter of the Muir Linds of Burlingame avenue, celebrated her fifth birthday with a party Monday for some of her little friends from the Merrill Palmer School.

The winter sports at Grayling are attracting more and more people every day. A group enjoying the events today are Mr. and Mrs. Noble D. Travis, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Earhart of Ann Arbor, Louise Fisher, Edward N. Hartwick, Betty Berridge, Richard Jeffries, Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick B. Besimer and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton C. Purdie.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns Cody had a gorgeous time at the Junior Christ Child Society's fashion show and dance Saturday. They went with Virginia Posier who was chairman of the affair, you know.

The cocktail lounge which was reserved exclusively for husbands and boy friends helped to make the affair a big success. The poor dears previously had to view the show from an unoccupied spot and, as we recall it, there weren't very many such spots last year.

appear in a gray crepe that has little rhinestone buckles all the way down the front....

The gown is fashioned with a trim basque...sleeves are long and loose....

Kelly green accessories go with this outfit....

Then there are the evening hour costumes....

The tropical moon will lose its eyes...when it sees how devastating the blonde Mary Margaret is in her printed evening gowns....

There are two particular prints which we fancied...one has a black background...and another has a white background....the well dressed woman must include a gown of each of these types in her wardrobe....

White Crepe Gown for Dancing

THE WHITE background is almost lost in a riot of purple, green and blue printed figures...the dress is cut on Grecian lines....

Long and dramatic panels of the material sweep from the shoulders to the floor...and the narrow belt is held in place by a rhinestone buckle centered in emeralds....

There is no back at all to the gown...and the front neckline is halter-effect....

The black background, which is less formal, combines yellow, blue, green and red print...and has stiff collar and cuffs of the same material....

She'll dance in Havana...in a white crepe gown...that is severely simple...and has a belt of solid rhinestones....

Her peche satin gown is very empire...with dropped shoulder effect...and large costume clip worn on the front bodice....

When the weather becomes filled with tropical warmth...she'll choose a red and white dotted marquisette worn over white taffeta....

Down the front of the gown...there is a tailored rouching effect...buttoned in discs covered with the dress material....

Mary Margaret does not like trains...so none of her evening gowns have them....

Trains, incidentally, have gone to the never-never land to stay...the newest Spring and southern gowns do not seem to include them....

HER NEGLIGEEES are divine...all the pastel colors are used...and we "fell" the most for a rich peche chiffon velvet....

It has a great maribou collar that is like a fur scarf...of the same color...cuffs are also of maribou...and the belt is made of miniature rhinestones....
