

GAME WARDEN EXAMS SEPT. 8

Examination for State Wardens to be Conducted Under Civil Service.

Civil service examinations for applicants for state game warden positions will begin at 9 A. M. Wednesday, Sept. 8, at Mechanic Arts High School in St. Paul, according to an announcement issued last week by Conservation Commissioner H. C. Wenzel.

All game wardens at present employed by the department of conservation will be admitted to the examinations, the announcement said. Among other applicants, only those whose applications were received between July 1 and August 31 will be eligible to compete in the examinations.

All applicants must be citizens of the United States, and residents of Minnesota for at least one year preceding the date of the examinations, according to the announcement. They must be not less than 25 nor more than 50 years of age and must have completed the equivalent of a common school education.

"Applicants must have a practical knowledge of game management," a thorough knowledge of game laws, and the ability to use firearms," Commissioner Wenzel said.

"Candidates will be judged on the basis of a written test prepared by experienced persons, by training and experience, and an oral interview. Only those receiving a grade of at least 70 per cent will be eligible for appointment as game wardens."

"An eligible list of 250 names will be prepared on the basis of the examinations, and a medical examination will be required of all successful candidates."

"The examination papers will be graded by Harry Speakes, director of the division of game and fish, A. W. Smith, chief examiner of the department of conservation, and a game management specialist of the University of Minnesota."

"The state legislature in providing for the merit system for employees of the department of conservation provided no funds for conducting the examinations," Commissioner Wenzel added. "We must therefore hold all examinations in St. Paul to save expense."

Ely Boy Getting Ahead In CCC Camp at Effie.

A letter with the following notation by F. C. Marks, camp educational adviser of Company 1722, CCC, at Effie, has been received by the Miner. The notation reads:

"Joseph J. Russ, whose home is in Ely, has been a member of the Civilian Conservation Corps, located with Company 1722, Effie, Minnesota, for over a year. His friends in Ely will be glad to know of his success.

"From the first day he entered camp his industry and ability were noted by both the army and technical personnel of the camp. For the past several months he has been working in the forestry office, first as assistant clerk, and later as chief clerk. In fact, he has done his work so well that the highest possible rating was given to him in the organization. He is doing well one of the most difficult jobs in the whole organization.

"Should he leave the CCC to enter private employment, his loss would be keenly felt, and his place would be hard to fill."

Martha Raye Makes Debut as Adagio Dancer.

That amazing Martha Raye has performed another feat that left Hollywood movie folk gasping.

It happened during the filming of "Mountain Music," the comedy in which she was co-starred with Bob Burns, and which opens on Saturday midnight, with Sunday and Monday showings at the State Theatre. Martha was called upon to take the place of an adagio dancer and was tossed about with "the greatest of ease."

She was informed that a double would be used as the dancer. But Martha prides herself on the fact that she takes all her own falls—and they're innumerable. So she looked herself up and practiced falls—for three whole days—and then appeared on the set and went through the scene with the ease and facility which might well have done a skilled adagio dancer proud.

TROUT PLANTED THE PAST WEEK

Estimated 180,000 Fingerlings Released in Selected Lakes of This Vicinity.

A total of 690 cans, or an estimated 180,000 fingerlings from the Lester Park hatchery, were planted by the fish and game committee of the Ely Commercial Club in the waters near here during the past few days.

Of the number 120,000 were lake trout and Loch Leven trout and 60,000 brook trout. The planting was done under the direction of the committee consisting of Dr. H. C. Newgard, chairman; Joseph Rothman, Jr., Helmer Olson, Frank Jenko, Joseph Rothman, Sr., and Secretary Ray Hoefler of the Commercial Club.

Game wardens who assisted in the work were William Hanson, district chief; Joseph Rossmann, Byron Carlson, William Hassel, Nell Lee and Gerhart Gilbertson.

The lake trout went into Burntside, Basswood, Snowbank and Twin lakes. Loch Leven trout went to Bear Island, Little Long, Mitchell, Armstrong, Mudro and Snowbank lakes. Brook trout were planted into Isabella, Wolf, Little Stony, Cedar, Section Thirty, Gustafson, Lonsdorf, Schroeder, Camp E. Baird and Harris rivers.

Forest service, city, county and private trucks were utilized to convey the fingerlings to the several streams and lakes. Those assisting in the work were William and Melvin Sletten, George Makl, William Weiss, Adolph Dolenz, Robert Waite, John Matchiner, Howard Harrio, Charles Bach, Charles Kling, Otto Hokkanen, John Klobuchar, Frank Menden, John Pele, Tony Freshire, Matt Spreitzer, Carl Johnson, Martin Gorink, William Alden and E. L. Raution.

Barbers Take Advantage of New Fair Trade Law.

The barbers of the Vermilion range, embracing the City of Ely, City of Tower, Soudan and Winton, are the first trade or profession in this immediate section of the state to ask for a hearing under the provisions of the law passed last winter known as the Fair Trade Practices Act.

The hearing will take place at the Court Room in the City Hall on Thursday, September 1, at 8 o'clock P. M., according to a notice calling the hearing in another place in this paper and signed by the Board of Barber Examiners of the Fair Trade Commission by Paul Spearling its secretary.

This law, Chapter 235, session laws of 1937, applies only to those belonging to "service trades engaged in rendering and performing personal services upon a person or persons," which limits the application of the act to barbers and operators of beauty shops, with few exceptions.

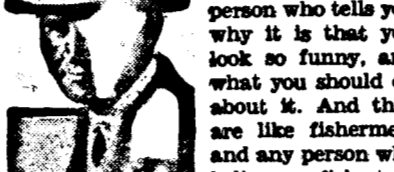

Breaking Promises

"To break a promise is easy," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chinatown, "but it may injure your credit, even to the extent of destroying your faith in yourself."

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

When I get to squintin' around in the paper, I always seem to run across something or other that is kinda comical. And the latest, it is where they are fixin' to have a convention of the cosmetologists.

A cosmetologist is something that maybe everybody don't know all about. And I looked her up, and it is a person who tells you why it is that you look so funny, and what you should do about it. And they are like fishermen, and any person who believes a fish story it would be safer to lock him up. And a person who imagines that a touch of purple paint at 2 dollars per touch, is gonna do anything except make you look like a sick Sioux, they might also be watched.

But these artists of cosmetics, maybe they do some good, 'cause I see where the Gov't says that we should put our money in circulation. And instead of saving, or payin' our bills, we should spend more.

And for fish stories, it is a tight race between the cosmetologists and Uncle Sambo.

Yours, with the low down,
JO SERRA.

HORSE DISEASE APPEARS HERE

Dr. Thompson Reports Two Equine Encephalomyelitis Cases in This Area.

Two cases of equine encephalomyelitis have appeared on one farm near this city, according to Dr. J. E. Thompson, city veterinarian, who was called on the case.

This is a highly infectious disease of horses which made its appearance in Minnesota in 1934, says the doctor and also states that there is none too much known regarding the disease but that every effort is being put forth to get at the cause of it.

A certain species of mosquito is suspected of being a spreader of the disease. It is also known that the plague subsides in the localities where it has appeared with the advent of cold fall weather and that the mortality rate may vary from 2 per cent, to as high as 80 per cent.

"All horse ailments at this time, should be suspected as being equine encephalomyelitis," says Dr. Thompson. "Medication with home remedies should be avoided as throat paralysis is the common symptom. The result of medication due to the inability to swallow will be disastrous."

Dr. Thompson also states that the disease is infectious and must be reported to the Live Stock Sanitary Board.

WARDENS ABOLISHED.

The new director of game and fish, Harry E. Speakes, on Friday, announced the abolishment of approximately 500 volunteer game wardens. The director states that "abuses" caused taking this step and that those who have held positions have been requested to turn in their badges. The volunteers received no remuneration but had equal power with regular wardens.

First U. S. Admiral

The first admiral was David G. Farragut, who held that rank from 1866 until his death in 1870. David D. Porter was an admiral from 1870 until he died in 1891. The rank was recreated for George Dewey in 1899, and lapsed with his death in 1917.

JUNIOR COLLEGE

Organized as an accredited institution by the University of Minnesota. In addition to preparing students toward the attainment of degrees in the Colleges of Liberal Arts and Education, attention is now paid to such course groupings as pre-business, pre-dental, pre-nursing, pre-medical, pre-engineering, pre-legal and pre-forestry; that graduates of the Junior College can pursue with as little loss of time as possible their chosen lines of work in higher institutions. A high standard of scholarship has been maintained which meets the requirements of admission to the Junior Class of the best colleges and universities in the country. All courses offered must meet the approval of the advisory board of the university.

Ninety quarter credits and not less than ninety honor points are required for graduation. In order to receive full credit for work done at Ely, a student must maintain an average grade of C.

Graduates who have obtained this rating and who have used care in their choice of courses have no trouble in matriculating as Juniors with full standing at the university. The only time credits are discounted during transfer is when a student takes work entirely foreign to the field he ultimately desires to go into and when his record shows poor scholarship.

The National Youth Administration of St. Paul announced this week that federal aid to students in the colleges and universities had been cut to approximately one-half of the 1936 quota. This will mean that only the most needy and deserving of applicants will be considered for federal aid positions in the Junior College and that monthly allowances will be considerably less than last year. Application forms for federal aid may be secured at the time of registration.

"Bravest of the Brave"

Michel Ney was born in Saarlouis, France, in 1769, the son of a cooper. Entering the army in 1788 as a private hussar, he became a general of brigade in 1796 and distinguished himself by bravery in the wars of the revolution and of the empire. He earned for himself from Napoleon's army and from Napoleon himself the title of the bravest of the brave. When Napoleon abdicated in 1814, Ney attached himself to Louis XVIII, but on the former's return from Elba he joined his old master and commanded the Old Guard at Waterloo. On the second return of the Royalists to power, he was arrested, tried by his peers and shot on December 7, 1815.
