Farmer Labor Rally

at the Community Center Tonight! June 15, at 7:45

All Candidates for Representative of the 61st district will be on the program besides the four county commissioner candidates.

ELECT NELS L. NELSON County Superintendent of Schools.

For the past 19 years Mr. Nelson has taken a prominent part in the rural life of this county and has been a leader in many civic and educational circles. In addition to his civic achievements he has all the necessary qualifications for the county superintendent of schools position.

He is a graduate of the Virginia high school and in 1920 he graduated from the University of Minnesota and since then has had two years of graduate work there. For 18 years Mr. Nelson taught agriculture and science in the Virginia high school and at present is director of radio and visual education at that institution. He is married and has two sons. Taxpayer in the county for 19 years and lives at 907 5th Ave. So, Virginia, Minn.

The Virginia candidate is an ardent conservationist and has spent many years in research work on the diseases and parasites of wild animal life. He is active in Boy Scout work, having been a scoutmaster for several years.

His candidacy is being supported by many rural and civic leaders who have confidence in his qualifications and ability as county schools superintendent.

Mr. Nelson is president of the Virginia Sportsmen's club; director of the Arrowhead Sportsmen's club; president of the Lakeland Farmers' club; president of the Lakeland Cooperative Light & Power association; past president of the Virginia Garden club; past vice-chairman of the Central Labor Assembly; member of the St. Louis County Fair board; member of the Virginia Federation of Teachers, and a member of J. Burr Pratt Post No. 239, American Legion.

Ordered and paid for at the regular rates by Nels Nelson in his own behalf.

Executive Committee of Rod & Gun Club Meets.

The executive committee of the Ely Rod & Gun Club met at Silver Rapids Lodge, June 7th.

Resolutions were adopted relating to pits fry for planting in the lakes of this vicinity. The resolution called for asking the state game and fish department, as a temporary measure, to install additional batteries in the Tower hatchery for the purpose of hatching spawn secured in the local area.

It was thought that in this manner more fry could be secured for planting hereabouts and that the additional batteries would be able to easily care for the Ely addition.

A resolution also was adopted which read: "That in appreciation of the services rendered the Ely Rod & Gun Club in the matter of publicity in the Ely Miner since the organization of the club in 1927, a motion was made and duly seconded that Peter Schaefer, publisher of the Miner, be granted an honorary membership in the Club."

The committee decided to dispense with the meetings of the club during the summer months or until the second Tuesday in September.

Ray Hoefler was extended a vote of thanks for his showing of the wild life movies at the outing of a few weeks ago at which Herman Wenzel, state conservation director, was an honored guest.

SECTION THIRTY

Two Twin City visitors were fined ten dollars and costs in Justice Court at Section 30, for having more fish than the law allows.

It cost a Basewood Lake resident $20 and costs for not having time to buy a fishing license.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Lomasney left on Saturday for several days visit in the Twin Cities. On their return they will be accompanied by their daughters, Kathleen and Eileen, the former from Frontenac, where she is teaching, and the latter from the University of Minnesota. Before returning Mr. Lomasney will attend a special meeting of the Lake County Board.

W. H. Opper spent several days last week in Two Harbors, attending a meeting of the Lake County School Board.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nelson and son, Eugene, motored to Minneapolis last week with Mr. and Mrs. Larry Anselment and daughter, Lola.

THETA RHOS TO DULUTH

Local Lodge Will Initiate New Duluth Chapter at State Convention Tonight.

Arvid Sundholm was elected delegate by the Ely Lodge No. 226, I. O. O. F. to the Minnesota Grand Lodge Convention of Odd Fellow lodges and their auxiliary organizations, meeting in Duluth this week from Monday to Friday night.

Advices from Duluth are to the effect that thousands of delegates are crowding the decorated streets and everywhere the three linkers are in evidence.

Ely will take a prominent part in the work of the week. Tonight the Ely Theta Rho Girls Club will be in Duluth to initiate the newly organized Duluth chapter and to give drill exhibitions.

The girls will be under the command of Louise Strom and Alice Hayden, president and vice president of the Theta Rho chapter. The commanders left yesterday afternoon and will act as delegates to the conference of the order. Mrs. Rudolph Halamiak accompanied them.

The Theta Rho girls have been outfitted with new and handsome uniforms for the drill work. The uniforms consist of formal gowns with borders of a dotted Swiss material. The sashes consist of ribbons in the club colors, blue and pink.

The girls performed their drill for the local Rebekah lodge on Tuesday evening at which also the mothers of the girls were guests and at which coffee and doughnuts were served. Those present state that the drill is a thing of beauty and that the girls will be a sensation tonight in Duluth.

A large number of Ely Odd Fellows and Rebekahs propose to be in Duluth tonight and tomorrow as interested spectators of a colorful convention that opened with a welcoming address by Mayor C. R. Bergthuk and an address by William Pittenger, past grand sire of the order.
