

MISS KAIJA HOME FROM 6TH TRIP

IA. Sylvia Kaija arrived yesterday for a week's furlough visit before returning to the East coast. Lieutenant Kaija, an army nurse stationed aboard a hospital ship, has made six crossings of the Atlantic. Last night she was the guest of honor at a party given by Mrs. Leoni Mann and Mrs. Alfred Kauppi.

Glenn Powers, Former Ely School Principal, Dies

Glenn Powers, former Ely school principal and later principal at Gilbert, died of a heart attack at his home in Virginia, where he conducted a photography business. He was born in Fountain, Minn., Dec. 14, 1891. Surviving are his widow and a son with the army air corps at Las Vegas, Nev. A sister, Mrs. Gilbert Kolstad, Preston, Minn., and a brother in Kansas also survive.

ARE SENTENCED IN SCHOOL CASE

Three former members of the local school board involved in irregularities disclosed by the state public examiner were sentenced Wednesday in Virginia district court.

Jack Gianotti was fined $500 and sentenced to a year in a state prison. The prison sentence was stayed for a period of two years on condition that the fine be paid and that he not hold public office during that time.

Anton J. Kotchevar was fined $1,500 and sentenced to a year in prison. The prison term also was stayed on the same conditions.

Ivan Tausell was fined $750 and was given an alternate term of six months at the county work farm. He paid his fine immediately, although all three were given until Saturday noon to pay their fines.

The sentencing of Charles Knox, school supply salesman, is still pending. Both Gianotti and Kotchevar had pleaded guilty to offering and giving a bribe to a public officer, while Tausell had pleaded guilty to being interested in a contract while a public officer. Knox was convicted of offering a bribe to a public officer.

Book Week is Here!

TWENTY-FIFTH annual BOOK WEEK will be celebrated here and throughout the nation, November 14-20. The challenging slogan, "Build the Future With Books," suggests that BOOK WEEK 1943 presents greater opportunities than ever for building a world where people of high courage and bounteous goodwill live, is to give them good books, and more and more good books.

Our boys and girls are eagerly anticipating the exhibits and programs planned for them by teachers, librarians and bookmen with the co-operation of many local groups. The pleasure derived from a great appreciation of books to successive groups of young people makes each BOOK WEEK a fresh experience for those who share the project with them, and gains new friends every year.

Cut Extra Pulpwood This Week—Every Week!

NEWS ITEM:
Ration boards have special instructions on extra gas, tires, etc., for pulpwood producers.

SWING YOUR AXE FOR VICTORY

Practice Forestry in your Woodlot

1. If you cut your timber properly, you won't destroy the stand.
2. Do not strip the woods; do not clear cut. Destructive cutting ruins future crops.
3. Carefully select each tree to cut. Leave the young trees, the small ones and enough to form a new stand.
4. Cut low stumps and use all the wood you cut to the full merchantable limit.
5. Good cutting practices will give you continuous crops of timber and steady income.

ELY STILL DIGS FROM STORM

This area, swept by the first storm of the season Sunday and Monday, is still digging out from under the 14-inch blanket of snow that fell. The moderate temperatures made the snow heavy and sticky and prevented it from being piled into mountainous drifts by the high wind.
City plows work throughout Monday night to open the streets. Storm-bound autos which blocked thoroughfares greatly hampered the work of the plows.
The Greyhound bus left here Monday morning but did not return until Tuesday noon. The D. M. & I. R. passenger was about a half hour late Monday and the star train carrier from Virginia arrived an hour behind schedule.

Have a Coca-Cola = What's the good word?

...or how to get along with folks

Your American soldier carries the keys to comradeship wherever he goes. Have a "Coke", says he to the eager youngsters at home, and it's like saying, What's the good word? It's a phrase that's understood in New Zealand or Newport, at home or in far-off places. Around the world Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes—has become the gesture of good will, saying Let's be friends.
