Anna Dahlin Obituary

Anna Mae Dahlin, 74, was taken from this life suddenly on Dec. 9, 2008. She was born to Angelo and Elsie Curletto in Portland, Ore., on May 9, 1934. She loved music as a child, especially playing her prized violin. Her love of music turned her into an accomplished musician while a young adult, playing as a member of the Junior Symphony. She attended Washington High School where she met the love of her life, Dennis Dahlin. They were married on March 21, 1954 and spent 54 breathtaking years together raising their children and loving their grandchildren. She is survived by her husband, Dennis Dahlin; three daughters, Denise Racanelli (Rocky) of Portland, Ore., Lori Goldfin (Mitch) of Reno, Nev., and Vicki Kraus (Tim) of Portland, Ore.; 9 grandchildren Angelo, Nathan, Jake, and Corrie Racanelli, Stephanie and Melissa Goldfin, Paul, Jenny, and Eric Kraus. Anna Mae lived a life of service to others and her many accomplishments include a Charter member of the Assistant League of Portland Oregon and president from 1966-1967; Member of the Oregon Symphony; Member of Oregon Historical Society; PTA; and Campfire Leader. Anna Mae loved traveling the world with her husband, and playing tennis and golf. She treated her family and friends to her amazing gourmet cooking through parties and dinners. She loved life and her infectious smile and laughter will be especially missed. She will also be remembered for her exquisite style and eye for fine decorating, and the fun-filled shopping trips with family and friends. Memorial services will be held on Dec. 21, 2008 at Waverley Country Club starting at 12:00 p.m. Viewing will be available Sun., Dec. 21, 2008 at Mt. Scott Funeral Home.
