Mr. Hank DeLeeuw February 5, 1941 ~ October 26, 2016 (age 75)

Obituary Henry "Hank" John DeLeeuw, 75, of Asheboro, NC, went home to be with the Lord, Wednesday, October 26, 2016 at Randolph Hospice House.

Hank was born in Clifton, New Jersey on February 5, 1941. He was the son of the late Matthew and Hermina (Harder) DeLeeuw.

Devoted husband to his wife Ruth (Vander Molen) having celebrated over 55 years of marriage. Hank was a mail carrier, self-employed excavator, and employee of C.R. Wolfe Heating until his retirement. After retirement Hank and Ruth moved to Asheboro. Hank was a strong and courageous man, yet a kind and gentle soul to those who knew him. During his retirement he gave himself to others by volunteering in many ways. He delivered meals on wheels, and was a mentor to children by helping them with homework. He was a faithful and active member of Cross Road Baptist Church in Asheboro. He was a student of the Bible and loved his Sunday School Class.

Hank is survived by his wife, Ruth DeLeeuw, of the home; son, Ken (Julene) DeLeeuw, of Middletown, NY; daughter, Dee (Chris) Farina, of Asheboro, NC; granddaughters, Krista, Alicia, Shaye, Demi, Cala, and Morgan.

He will be missed by all his family and friends.

A memorial service will be held at 2:00 p.m., Friday, October 28, 2016 at Cross Road Baptist Church, 1566 Old Cox Road, Asheboro, NC, with Rev. Johnny Henderson, Rev. Gregg Arnold, and Gary Mason officiating. A celebration of Life will be held at St. Johns Lutheran Church in Middletown, NY at a later date.

Bob and Ingrid Howell

Our deepest sympathy to Ruth, Dee, Kenny & Family. One of the first memories that comes to mind is when Kenny got his head stuck in the prongs of a chair. When we were finally able to remove him and asked him how he did that his reply was "here, let me show you" at which point we all yelled "NO". We also enjoyed celebrating our February Birthdays at Orios. We will always remember Hank.
