Obituary

Shirley Goldberg, 91, passed away December 25, 2018.

Shirley was born to Louis and Sarah Green on November 24, 1927, in Duluth. She was the youngest of five siblings and one of only two to be born after her family immigrated to America. Shirley graduated from Duluth Central High School and attended one year of business school; she worked as a secretary in a loan company for a short time. She married Charles Goldberg in her sister's home on June 29, 1947. Together they raised four children. Shirley and Charley owned and operated Goldberg's Kosher Meats in Duluth for many years. After the store closed in the late 1960's Shirley returned to business school for additional training and was then employed at HBJ Inc. She loved her work there and made several life long friends. Once retired, Shirley and Charley sold their home in Duluth and lived both in Arizona and Florida, creating wonderful memories and warm friendships. Shirley remained in Florida for one year following Charley's death, returning to Duluth in 2003. She was a member of Temple Israel and had been active in both Hadassah and B'nai Brith. Until recently she enjoyed knitting, reading, playing mah jongg, eating out, and keeping up with family and friends. She was known for her gentle smile and ability to make others feel special.
