

Nathaniel D. Goldfarb

Nathaniel D. Goldfarb, 87, a retired dry goods merchant, who founded the Goldfarb Family Association, died yesterday at his home, 188 Keap St., after an illness of a few weeks.

Born in Russia 87 years ago, Mr. Goldfarb had lived here since childhood. He leaves six sons, Rabbi Israel Goldfarb of the faculty of the Jewish Theological Seminary, Albert, Samuel E., Saul, Benjamin and Joseph and five daughters, Mrs. Lena Grantz, Mrs. Rose Schechter, Mrs. Lillian Kneitel, Mrs. Dora Rhine and Mrs. Belle Spiro.