Sheldon Goldfin Obituary

Sheldon Jay Goldfin of Reno, Nevada, passed away peacefully, with his family at his side, at Renown Medical Center on Tuesday, July 12, 2022.

Sheldon, Shel to his friends, was born August 23, 1932 in Duluth, Minnesota to Joseph and Elizabeth (Karon) Goldfin. ×

They relocated to Marysville, California and he graduated from Marysville High School. At the very young age of twelve he learned to drive a truck, making deliveries for his father's produce business. He knew right then that truckin' was his passion and became a very successful owner/operator. His company, Diamond G Trucking, varied its role over many decades. Trucking lumber to Las Vegas, cargo to Chicago, and logging in Oregon. At the age of eighty-two, he decided to park his 10-wheeler and retired.

Sheldon is survived by the love of his life, best friend, and partner Aida (Olivares) Goldfin; married over 67 years and still madly in love. He is also survived by son Mitchell and wife Lori, four grandchildren, and five great grandchildren. He was so very proud of his family.

Sheldon was preceded in death by a younger son Matthew.

At Shel's request, there will be no memorial or celebration of life. Instead, we ask that folks carry out a simple act of kindness in his memory.
