

Larry Greenberg

December 4, 1941 - October 11, 2023

Larry Greenberg, loving husband, devoted father, and cherished grandfather, passed away on October 11, 2023, at the age of eighty-one. Born and raised in Duluth, MN, Larry lived a fulfilling life surrounded by his loved ones. After graduating from the University of Minnesota, he and his wife, Shelley lived in Minneapolis until relocating to Scottsdale, AZ over thirty years ago. He and Shelley were married for an incredible 59 years, a testament to their enduring commitment and love. Family mattered tremendously to Larry. His extended family of in-laws, nephews, and nieces (and grand nephews and nieces) provided him with pride and joy. His two sons, Jeff (Lisa) and Robb (Nancy) were the world to him. Whether planning his business trips when they were children so as not to miss an event, or going on golf trips when they were adults, his boys always came first. He cherished his role as a grandfather and was adored by his three grandchildren, Justin, Conor, and Aaron. And his wife Shelley, whether writing her cute poems, or travelling the world, she was the focus of his love. For over 59 years she was the most important person in his life, and he made sure she knew that every day. An avid sports enthusiast, Larry had a passion for golf and treasured the special bond he formed with his golf buddies throughout the years. When he was not on the golf course, he could often be found cheering on his favorite teams. He was a dedicated supporter of the Minnesota Twins and Vikings, and in his adopted home of Phoenix, he proudly followed the Phoenix Suns and the Arizona Diamondbacks. And of course, he loved hockey. Beyond his love for sports, Larry will be remembered for his kind and generous nature. He was always there to lend a helping hand or offer advice, and really, to do the right thing, and his warm heart left a lasting impact on all who knew him. Larry's memory will forever remain in the hearts of his family and friends. He will be dearly missed but never forgotten.
