Edward Jacobs, of East St. Marie Street, died Nov. 3, 2005 at his home.

He was born in Superior and lived there until he married and moved to Duluth. Edward graduated from Superior Central High School. Upon graduation he attended Superior State Teachers College and graduated with degrees in History and Social Sciences. He went on to attend graduate school at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill. He taught high school for a number of years before starting a business with his father Harry and brother George. The business was Duluth Paint and Glass Company. He ran the company for over 25 years. While still working, Ed served in a volunteer capacity as President of Temple Israel and President of the Jewish Education Center.

After Ed's retirement in 1983 he decided he wanted to make a difference in the Duluth community by becoming a very active volunteer. His volunteer services included 22 years at St. Luke's Hospital with his extended family in Medical Records, 17 years at St. Mary's Hospital, served on the American Cancer Society Board and on the Board of Directors at Temple Israel and was a Mason at the Masonic Temple for 45 years. His real passion was tutoring youngsters in reading. He knew he made a difference in their lives when he was able to take struggling readers and move them to the head of their reading class.

Ed was an avid reader and loved his weekly games of bridge. He was passionate about his family and was a very proud father and grandfather. For many years Ed would go west to visit his daughter's family and other family members. He will be deeply missed by his family and friends.

Edward was preceded in death by his wife of 47 years, Ruth

He is survived by his daughter, Linda; son-in-law Fernando; and grandchildren, Alison and Jason.

Burial in Temple Emanuel Cemetery.
