Ruth Marcia Lussan Jacobs, of East St. Marie Street died July 21, 2000, in St. Mary's Medical Center.

She was born in St. Paul and lived there until she married and moved to Duluth.

Ruth graduated from St. Paul Central High School and went to the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis. In Duluth, she became an active community volunteer.

She was past president of the Temple Israel Sisterhood, a Sunday school teacher, reader to the blind and a volunteer for the Duluth Symphony Ball Committee, Tweed Gift Shop, St. Mary's Medical Center and the American Cancer Society. She was a life member of Hadassah and a member of Temple Israel Sisterhood and the Duluth Women's Club.

Ruth had a zeal for life. Her many loves and interests included interacting with her grandchildren, strolling around the Lakewalk, playing a round of golf, challenging herself with daily crossword puzzles, attending concerts and plays, reading novels and participating in weekly bridge games.

For years, Ruth and her husband, Edward, have spent winters in California close to their daughter, son-in-law and grandchildren. Ruth was passionate about her family and will be remembered as a devoted, loving and caring wife, mother and grandmother. She will be deeply missed by her family and friends.

She is survived by her loving husband of 47 years, Edward; a daughter, Linda;

a son-in-law, Fernando; and grandchildren Alison and Jason.

Burial in Temple Emanuel Cemetery.
