My deepest condolences to Fran, Bill, Mark, Ellen, Toby's family , and Tim's family. Although the heartbreaking news of Amy's passing came as a shock, I have no doubt the grace of my longest life friend was a reflection of her fearless perseverance and stoic style while battling her illness privately. Amy was a listener who heard what others were saying. That's rare and made her even more beautiful. To those of us that were so fortunate to have known Amy, she will always be remembered as an extraordinary woman who never let obstacles beat her down. Amy drove through life-not around it. She was a stellar human whose honesty and compassion left no one wondering if she was a true friend. I will miss her deeply and always.

It is hard for me to express the deep sorrow and pain I am feeling for the loss of Amy. Amy was my Attorney and she handled my Divorce with intelligence, compassion and strength. We became fast friends. She always had a smile, she was beautiful inside and out. Amy was my Champion, a real fighter, truly a one of a kind. She will be missed by me and all of those whose lives she touched.

Sad sad news! So much fun was had with this beautiful lady. AJ with all her many achievements in life. Always striving to be the best in every way, right down to that beautiful head of hair (the picture is perfect). We used to 'save' spin bikes at The Firm so we could sweat together. One time AJ got stuck in the elevator @ IMS on her way to class... needless to say she missed her work-out that day. We laughed over a bottle wine on that one. So many great memories with AJ, that I will always hold near and dear to my heart.

My deepest condolences to her family, such a huge loss for all.

Amy truly was a beautiful soul, and a brave one. She battled cancer with dignity and grace. I for one am going to be making a conscious effort to be a better person, less selfish and more compassionate, as a way of honoring her memory. 'Such a long, long time to be gone, and a short time to be there...'

My deepest condolences to the Joyce family and loved ones. It had been a while since we crossed paths, but i remember our last meeting fondly as she called out to another friend when she spotted me in the room to say, "look who is here in a very endearing manner. Always a kinds soul, thoughts of growing up in the Mark Terrace neighborhood together will keep her memory a blessing forever.

My Dearest Amy did not lose her battle with cancer. She lived graciously and courageously with it until the very end. She chose how to think, speak and her soul leaps and towers over the attempts to let her diagnoses pull her down. Amy, In many, many ways, inspired several including myself and teaching us, she won her battle in other very important ways. She was a wonderful role model and friend. Right to the end. You see, Amy did not lose her battle with cancer. She Won. I will look for her amongst the elements. Her strong spirit will soar and she will guide us always. All my love and prayers go out to all that loved her. She will NEVER be forgotten. I love you Amy.
