

Kronick, David Adam

July 1, 1967 - May 10, 2022

David Adam Kronick, age 54, of Danville, California, and Maple Grove, Minnesota, passed away after a valiant battle with ALS on May 10, 2022.

Beloved son of Micki Herman Kay and Neil Kay, and Bruce and Judy Kronick.

Survived by loving and devoted wife, Gabby (nee Kaplan) Kronick, and sons Mason and Aaron Denton, in-laws Leslie and Darryl Kaplan, and uncle Edward Herman; step-sisters and brothers, David (Lauren) Kay, Jackie (Donny) Furst, Deborah (Michael) Stein, Alan (Betsy) Weiner, Carolyn Hussman, Jennifer (Gary) Appelbaum and many loving nieces, nephews, and cousins.

David is preceded in death by beloved grandparents Beatrice and Ned Herman, Gertrude and Sol Kronick, and brother Michael Stephen Kronick.

David was a lover of all sports and had special talents in baseball and swimming. He wrote screenplays when he graduated from USC with Business and Cinematography degrees and worked as the COO of Kronick Industries in Minneapolis.

His charm and smile lit up every room he entered. David had crowds of friends who will miss his wit and steadfast friendships. His essence was of sweetness and warmth.

David did not want to be a source of sadness or anguish for anyone so there will be a private service in California.

Shiva in Minneapolis at 5:30 PM, Saturday, May 14 and Sunday, May 15, at the home of Micki and Neil Kay. Memorials please to the David Adam Kronick, ALS Health and Healing Fund at Temple Israel, Minneapolis.
