

Delores Levin

Sep. 07, 1936 ~ Dec. 03, 2025

Delores Ann Levin

September 7, 1936 – December 3, 2025

Resident of Edina, Minnesota, passed away on December 3, 2025 calmly in her home.

Delores is survived by her sister, Linda Lashkowitz; her daughter, Carrie Levin and son-in-law Steve Freeman; her grandchildren, Emma Freeman, Samantha Freeman and Asher Mintzer. She is preceded in death by her husband of 60 years, Sheldon (Corky) Levin; and by her parents Hazel and David Eisenstadt.

Delores cared deeply about the Jewish community and was involved with several organizations, including the Jewish Federation, where she left a lasting legacy. She had a deep love of musical theater and ballet—interests she passed on to her daughter and granddaughters. She also enjoyed spending winters in Naples, Florida, where she enjoyed good food, sunshine, and endless views of the ocean. Above all, she loved being a grandmother and was affectionately referred to as Demi, a name given to her years ago by her granddaughters.

A graveside service will be held Friday, December 5th at 10 am at Adath Yeshurun Cemetery, 5605 S France Ave, Edina, MN 55424. SHIVA will follow at 1:30 PM at Temple Israel, 2323 Fremont Ave. S., Minneapolis and also on zoom at: www.hodroffs.com/ShivaDelores. In lieu of flowers, the family asks for donations to your favorite charity or the Minneapolis Federation for Jewish Service in Delores's honor.
