

OBITUARY

SIEGFRIED LEVY

Funeral services for Siegfried Levy, retired business man, were held Friday, December 4, at the Weiss chapel, 1901 N. Farwell avenue, with Rabbi Samuel Hirshberg officiating. Interment was in Spring Hill cemetery.

Mr. Levy, who was 89 years old, died early Thursday at his apartment at the Astor hotel after an illness of 10 days. Born in Berlin, Germany, he came to Milwaukee while a young man. He later moved to Marquette, Mich., and then to Duluth, Minn., where he lived for 40 years. Upon his retirement from business 20 years ago, he returned to Milwaukee. He was a member of Temple Emanu-El B'ne Jessurun.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Pauline Sternberg of Minneapolis, Minn., and seven sons, Louis S. of Fort Wayne, Ind., Harry M., Samuel M., Adolph J., Isadore M., Arthur A. and Dr. Mandel M., all of Milwaukee.

Siegfried Levy Obit

Clipped By:

ronald135

Sat, Jul 8, 2017