

Stephen "Steve" Liebo

Sep. 11, 1948 ~ Aug. 26, 2025

Steve passed away peacefully on 8/26/2025 at Shalom Home East in Saint Paul, MN surrounded by his loving family. Steve is survived by his wife and best friend, Barbara; children, Naomi (Brian Holly) and Aaron (Heather); grandchildren, Cecelia and Beckett; brother, Jack (Rhoda). Preceded in death by parents, Bernhardt (Bernie) and Dolores (Dee) Liebo.

Steve grew up in Bloomington where he met Barb on a blind date, they were happily married for 55 years and lived in St. Paul, Milwaukee, and finally New Hope, Minnesota where they decided to raise their family. Steve's pride and joy were his children and his grandchildren. Besides his work as a legal editor and author, Steve was a passionate teacher and guide with the Sonnysen elementary chess club, teaching, and tutoring at Hamline School of Law and William Mitchell. Everything he did was touched with compassion and love (and a pun or two). He will always be remembered for his large, legendary Seders, filled with laughter and designed to be read with extra emotion. He was a beloved son, brother, husband, father, Bappa, uncle, nephew, cousin, friend, teacher, and tutor.
