

Gertrude J. Margeson

Gertrude J. Margeson, 98, of Stiles Road, Troupsburg, NY, passed away in her sleep on Tuesday, August 13, 2019 at her home in the old farm house which has been her home since 1946.

Gertrude was born in Troupsburg on September 8, 1920, the daughter of the late William Jay and Inez (Leach) Hulbert. A lifelong resident of Troupsburg, she was a graduate of Troupsburg Central School in 1938 in the first graduating class in the new Troupsburg school building.

On July 1, 1939, she married Glen E. Margeson in Belmont, NY. Glen preceded Gertrude in death on October 9, 1998.

Gertrude was the cafeteria manager at the Troupsburg School for 20 years. But she also was a mother, homemaker and partner to Glen on their family farm. Gertrude was a wonderful cook and a skilled seamstress. She was a member of the Troupsburg United Methodist Church.

Besides Glen, Gertrude was predeceased by her son, Charles Margeson on June 5, 2018 and by all of her siblings, Lawrence Hulbert, Warren Hulbert, William J. Hulbert Jr, Lee Hulbert, Doris Brennan and Bernice Morris.

Surviving is her daughter, Glenda Torrence of Troupsburg, her daughter in law, Sally Margeson of Leroy, NY, her 5 grandchildren, Jamie Margeson, Roxanne (Kevin) Holthaus, Charles Margeson II, Jessica (Duane) Miller and Ian (Emily) Torrence, 6 great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service scheduled for Wednesday, October 2 at 2 pm at the H.P. Smith & Son Inc. Funeral Home, Woodhull, NY. has been cancelled due to a family medical issue.

Burial will be made in Chenango Cemetery, Troupsburg, NY.

In lieu of flowers, please consider memorial donations to the Chenango Cemetery Assoc., c/o Cathy Foster, President, 749 Cook Hollow Road, Woodhull, NY 4898.
