

Ronald Miller

Jun. 05, 1933 ~ Sep. 19, 2025

Ronald Irving Miller, age 92, of St. Paul, MN passed away September 19, 2025, peacefully surrounded by his loving family in Eagan, MN.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Carla Miller; his siblings, Faye (Ted Widdes), Stanley (Toby) Miller and Sumner (Matzie) Miller; his parents, Michael and Thressa Miller; and his son-in-law, Harlan Stern.

He is survived by his children, Amy Miller Stern and Jonathan Miller; his grandchildren, Elliott (Mackenzie Stern); Adam Stern (Arielle Koreyasu), and Melissa (Jason Kanuit); and great-grandchildren, Leo Kanuit, Josephine Koreyasu Stern, and Julian James Koreyasu Stern. He was also dearly loved by his many nieces and nephews.

Ron was born, raised, and lived in St. Paul his entire life, aside from his time serving abroad in the military. He graduated from Central High School, the University of Minnesota, and Macalester College. He lived a fulfilling life as a realtor, always prioritizing time with his family while serving his community alongside his late wife, Carla. An avid baker, Ron frequently submitted entries to the Minnesota State Fair, earning Blue Ribbons for his bakes over many years. He also taught baking classes for all ages and always had a fresh challah ready for any Jewish event throughout the year. Earlier in his career, Ron took time to teach English to Russian immigrants at the St. Paul Jewish Federation.

Ron was an active member of Temple of Aaron, the Jewish Community Center of St. Paul, and the Jewish Federation of St. Paul.

For those who wish to honor Ron's memory, please consider a contribution to Temple of Aaron or the Jewish Federation of St. Paul.

Funeral service MONDAY, September 22, 2025 at 10:00am at TEMPLE OF AARON, 616 Mississippi River Blvd., St. Paul. Service will be live-streamed, link found below. A gathering of family and friends will take place THURSDAY, Sept. 25th at 7:00pm at Temple of Aaron.