The Philadelphia Inquirer; Friday, April 14, 1989, Section B Page 18:

"Adolph Myerson, 81, who taught at Frankford High School longer than any other teacher in the school's history, died Wednesday at his home in Northeast Philadelphia. Mr. Myerson – nicknamed "Mr. Frankford" by the Frankford Alumni Association – was a 1925 graduate of the high school. He was awarded the prestigious Mayor's Scholarship and attended the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, where he earned a master's degree in 1933. He joined the faculty at Frankford High in 1934 and taught business courses until his retirement in 1976. During his years as a teacher, Mr. Myerson also worked as an insurance broker, in association with Cohn Seltzer Inc. of Fort Washington. He was a member and former president of the Graduate Club and was a member of the Emile Zola Lodge of B'rith Sholom and of the Educators Lodge of B'nai B'rith. He also belonged to the University of Pennsylvania Alumni Association. He is survived by his wife, Ruth Meyers Myerson; daughter, Joan M. Shrager; two grandchildren, a brother and a sister. Services will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at Berschler Funeral Chapels, 4300 N. Broad st. Interment will be at Roosevelt Memorial Park in Trevoze."
