Shirley Gavronsky Nides, 76, of Duluth died Thursday, Jan. 14, 1999, in St. Paul.

Shirley was raised in Centerville, Iowa, and obtained her B.A. from the University of Oklahoma at age 20. She was a respected teacher for 25 years in the Duluth schools. Shirley dedicated many years of service to her community by serving as co-president and longtime board member of Temple Israel Sisterhood and an officer of the St. Mary's Hospital Auxiliary. She also was on the Minnesota State Cancer Society Board of Directors and the Duluth Unit of the American Cancer Society.

Shirley also volunteered many hours to these fine organizations: Friends of the Library, United Way, American Association of University Women and the Duluth Jewish Federation.

Shirley was well known in the community because of her speaking and writing talents. Her presentation of "The Presidential Ladies" and other book reviews were the highlight of many area civic programs. Shirley had the honor of delivering the keynote address at her 50th high school reunion in Centerville, Iowa.

She is survived by her devoted husband of 49 years, Arnold; daughters Anne Loeb, Jane Nides, Margaret Nides, and Melissa Nides; sons James Nides, John Nides and Thomas Nides; a brother, Oscar Gavronsky; a sister, Jean Cook; eight grandchildren; daughters-in-law Linda Nides and Virginia Moseley; and a son-in-law, Dr. Edward Loeb .

Burial in Temple Emmanuel Cemetery.
