

Doris "Dory" Mae Rose

January 10, 1927 - August 19, 2024

Dory Rose, a cherished mother, grandmother, and beloved friend, passed away on August 19, 2024, in Minnetonka at the age of 97. Born Doris Mae Rivkin on January 10, 1927, in Minneapolis, Dory was witty, intelligent, and caring. Dory's early years were spent in Minneapolis, where she graduated from West High School in 1944. Dory then attended the University of Minnesota, where she majored in Political Science and History, graduating in 1948. During her college years, she was an active member of Alpha Epsilon Phi and formed lifelong friendships. Dory's life was deeply enriched by her loving family and friends. She grew up with her parents, Ruth and Nathan Rivkin; siblings, Roslyn (Roz), Harriet (Sis), and Arthur; and her close-knit extended family. In September 1948, Dory married Robert "Buddy" Rose. They built a life together filled with love and laughter, welcoming their children, Chuck, Steve, Peggy, and Elizabeth, into the world. Dory's greatest joys were her children and grandchildren, and she found immense happiness in their accomplishments and happiness. Dory is survived by two of her children and their partners, Chuck Rose (Jeannie Peters) and Elizabeth Rose (Richard Jerome); and her granddaughters, Rachel and Diana Jerome. After Buddy passed away in 2014, Dory filled her life with various community activities, including art classes, and joyously spent the past few years happily partnered with Lou Kotlarz. Lou brought Dory much joy and they enjoyed trips to art museums and many dinners together. A dedicated community member, Dory was involved in various organizations, including the League of Women Voters, Temple Israel Sisterhood, and the Council of Jewish Women. She had a passion for art, serving as a docent at the Walker Art Center and the Art Institute. She loved to play bridge and have lunch with her girlfriends. Her love for travel took her to many places, including China and Cuba, often accompanied by her friends and family. Memorial service 12:00 pm THURSDAY, August 22nd at Temple Israel, 2323 Fremont Ave. S., Minneapolis, and on Zoom at www.hodroffs.com/DorisRose. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the charity of your choice in Dory's memory. Dory Rose's vibrant spirit, loving heart, and unwavering dedication to her family, friends and community will be deeply missed but fondly remembered. A memorial gathering will take place for close friends and family at 7:00 pm Thursday at Dory's apartment.
